Seaton Jurassic gets ready for the princess

SEATON Jurassic is preparing for a major event in its fledgling history with the arrival of HRH The Princess Royal on Thursday.

The £4 million tourist attraction opened in late March and is at the forefront of the town's ongoing wave of regeneration.

After arriving in the early afternoon of April 14th, Princess Anne will spend her time touring Seaton Jurassic's exhibits, chatting with local schoolchildren, meeting representatives of East Devon District Council (the owners of Seaton Jurassic) and Devon Wildlife Trust (its operators), before unveiling a plaque to formally mark its opening.

Devon Wildlife Trust chief executive Harry Barton said: "This is a great moment for Seaton Jurassic."

"After four years of hard work to bring the attraction to life, the royal visit will be a wonderful tribute to the hard work and dedication of so many people."

Hard working royal

East Devon District Council leader councillor Paul Diviani said: "The Princess Royal has always been a great supporter of projects in our area and as one of our most hard working royals. It is always a delight to welcome her here."

Seaton Jurassic manager Mike Ruiter summarized the first few weeks by saying: "We've been delighted with the public's reaction to Seaton Jurassic."

"On our first day we had queues to get in as our doors opened at 10am."

"Since then we've been very busy welcoming between 500 and 600 people each day. It's more than we dared hope for and means that the centre, its shop, café and wildlife garden have been buzzing. "To have news of the Princess Royal's visit is a wonderful boost. We're very much looking forward to showing her around."

Mr Ruiter: continued: "We have also been very pleased with the feedback people are giving us."

"Visitors are saying that they like the quirky ways in which Seaton Jurassic tells the story of life over the last 250 million years. It certainly is unlike anything else on offer locally."

Seaton Jurassic will be closed to the public on the day of the Royal visit, but people are welcome to come to see Her Royal Highness as she arrives and departs. Seaton Jurassic will re-open the next day and resume its normal operating hours of 10am to 5pm, seven days a week.

Knifepoint robbery at Woodfield Stores

The cashier at Woodfield Stores and Video, Primrose Way, was left shaken but unhurt.

The incident happened at about 12.35pm on Friday, April 1st, but police did not issue a witness appeal until Wednesday, April 6th.

A police spokesperson said: "A man entered the store around 12.35pm and demanded money from the till."

"The suspect is described as a white man in his 20s and approximately 5ft 10ins to 5ft 11ins tall."

"He was wearing a black ski mask, similar to a balaclava but having only one hole which showed the eyes of the suspect, a green three-quarter length parka jacket with mixed colour fur around the hood, and dark trainers with white edging."

"The suspect had a South East accent and made off in the direction of Drovers Way."

"Officers and the dog team conducted searches of the area but no-one was found."

"Police are appealing for witnesses and ask that if anyone was in the area during the time of the robbery or noticed anything suspicious, that they contact police on 101 or via email to 101@devonandcornwall.pnn.police.uk quoting crime number CR/02 0760/16."

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

SOUTH SOMERSET Council welcomes £1.17M pothole grant

COUNTY Hall gave a reserved welcome to central government's £1.17million pothole grant to Somerset.

The grant itself was welcomed, but county council bosses say a greater, long-term investment in road maintenance is required.

The Department for Transport announced a national Pothole Action Fund, and claims the money could be used to fill 22,000 potholes in Somerset alone.

However, the county council says that rather than simply filling in potholes, it is much more cost effective – albeit more expensive initially – to make a permanent repair by cutting out and replacing the failing section of road with hot material.

Councillor David Fothergill, SCC Cabinet member for Highways, said: "We're a big rural county with more than 4,000 miles of road, and have seen our funding from government consistently reduced over recent years.

"So whilst this one-off extra funding is very welcome, a greater ongoing level of investment from government in our basic structural maintenance programme would enable us to ensure fewer potholes appear in the first place.

"We believe prevention is better than cure, and are committed to using a sound maintenance strategy to keep our roads safe.

As a guide, potholes identified as safety defects will be repaired within 28 days, although more severe hazards in busier locations can be repaired within 24 hours.

For more information about how Somerset County Council inspects and repairs potholes, please visit www.somerset.gov.uk/potholes

From the editor's chair Are your councillors worth it?

THERE'S been much in the news this past week about politicians' finances following the leaked Panama Papers, a collection of documents covering the tax-sensitive offshore business of world political leaders, including our Prime Minister David Cameron.

The PM has taken a battering from the national press, forcing him to reveal his income and tax returns for the past six years. Other party leaders are lining up to do likewise.

There has been no suggestion that Cameron has acted illegally, but as a former PR man he has certainly handled his own affairs in a clumsy fashion.

Cameron is not the first posh boy from a rich family to lead this country; perhaps he should not have tried so hard to be "one of us", the average "Joe". He never was and never will be.

There's much more accountability and transparency in political life these days and that is to be welcomed. Even at local level, the remuneration that our elected representatives receive are published for all to see.

Every member of our district and county councils receives a basic allowance. In the case of East Devon, each councillor receives £4,360 and on Devon County Council the allowance is £9,997. So if you serve on both authorities, as a number do, they can take home £14,357.

Those who have special responsibilities, such as a committee chairman, also receive a further payment and travel and subsistence sums are also paid out.

Somerset councillors receive a little more. The majority of East Devon councillors just claim the basic allowance but if you make it to the top, earnings of £30,000-plus are achievable.

In 2015 EDDC paid out nearly £400,000 in allowances and expenses to their members. You can judge whether this is money well spent.

Those who serve on the council will no doubt argue that it's a small price to pay for the amount of work they do and the hours they put in.

I have some sympathy for this view; it's a thankless task and, of course, it's a job that someone has to do. And in most cases they do it well and with good grace.

If you want to know what your local councillor receives, just Google "councillors' allowances".

HONITON Praise for dementia alliance

LOCAL MP Neil Parish has heaped praise on Honiton Dementia Action Alliance (HDAA) referring to it as a "beacon amongst dementia friendly communities".

Honiton and Tiverton MP, Mr Parish made the statement as he addressed the packed Beehive at HDAA's first AGM, where he congratulated everyone involved with making Honiton a 'Dementia Friendly Town'.

Chairman Heather Penwarden presented the annual report and outlined plans that the steering group have for the next 12 months which includes producing information leaflets, supporting more organisations to become dementia aware and adding to the 685 Dementia Friends they have amassed since their inception.

She said: "Anyone who would like to become a Dementia Friend or is in an organisation that would like to join the Honiton Dementia Action Alliance, then please do let me know and we will be more than happy to help you out."

OTTERY ST MARY Meetings scheduled on West Hill plans

THREE public meetings designed to help local residents understand the implications of West Hill leaving the parish – and forming their own council – have been scheduled for next month.

The meetings, which are being run by Ottery Town Council's West Hill Independence Working Group, will be held in Ottery, West Hill and Tipton St John. Organisers are hoping to help the general public better understand the future of the parish.

Residents of both West Hill and Ottery St Mary parish are currently being consulted by East Devon District Council (EDDC) on the future of the area and the boundary line of West Hill.

The public meetings will take place on May 10th at The Institute in Ottery St Mary at 7pm, May 17th at West Hill Village Hall at 8pm and May 19th at Tipton St John Village Hall at 7pm.

COLYTON New project to celebrate landscape

A NEW heritage project celebrating the landscape, wildlife and history of the Colyton and Shute area will launch on Friday, April 22nd at Kilmington Village Hall.

The project will be launched with a talk by Jill Butler of the Woodland Trust and Ancient Tree Forum, and Pete Youngman of East Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). The event will be held from 7.30pm to 9.30pm.

The project is being funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund with additional support from the East Devon AONB Partnership, Devon Wildlife Trust and the Axe Vale and District Conservation Society.

AXMINSTER Anger over footpath closures

OUTRAGED town councillors in Axminster say there is one planning rule for 'normal people' and one for developers.

Their anger was sparked by the latest chapter in the controversial Cloakham Lawn footpath saga, and they want to know why no enforcement action has taken place.

Bovis Homes has applied for a Footpath Diversion Order (FDO) of what is known as Footpath (FP) 80.

A much-criticised temporary path is currently in place, and Axminster Town Council believes the original route was closed without Bovis Homes having obtained the relevant order.

At a previous meeting, town councillor Paul Hayward publicly stated: "There is a process they should follow that could take up to 12 months, but by not doing it they have saved up to 12 months in time, and money."

The matter arose again when town councillors discussed the new FDO being applied for.

The discussion has resulted in an angry letter being sent to the chief executives of Devon County Council and East Devon District Council, Phil Norrey and Mark Williams respectively.

A spokesperson for Bovis Homes said: "At this stage, we will not make any comment on the letter."

DCC was invited to comment, but had not replied at the time of going to press.

SIDMOUTH EDDC move back on as councillor says it's 'not good'

THE controversial topic of East Devon District Council's relocation from Sidmouth to Honiton was back on the agenda at a cabinet meeting last week, with a number of councillors imploring EDDC for more information on the move.

One of the more vociferous voices on the issue was Sidmouth Town councillor, Cathy Gardner, who said it did 'not look like a good deal' for the residents of East Devon. Cllr Gardner made her statement at the EDDC Cabinet meeting where councillors were being given an update on the progress of the planned relocation of EDDC's HQ.

EDDC confirmed the move to Honiton's Heath-park Park will be delayed until February 2018. The three month delay is a precautionary measure in the possible event of legal challenges to any planning permission granted.

Velo Vintage pair get back on their bikes for Easter challenge

by Anders Larsson

SEATON man Alistair Cope and his son Sebastian kept their Easter tradition alive by going for a long bike ride on their penny farthings.

Alistair and Sebastian run Devon-based Velo Vintage, whose motto is "time to cycle, take tea, converse and dress with style".

Father and son felt the desire to spread the news of slow travel, so the idea of cycling in style over Easter was born.

This was the third Easter they embarked on the mission.

The first year saw them cycle from Bristol to Exmouth, followed by an attempt from London to Bristol last year.

Unfortunately, a problem developed last year, which meant they had to come to a halt in Pewsey.

But the remainder was completed this Easter, and Alistair said: "We both met at Axminster Railway Station early on Good Friday, having ridden our Penny Farthings there.

"Sebastian rode from Marshwood and I rode from Seaton.

"After two changes, we arrived at Pewsey and then rode to just beyond Devizes.

"On the Saturday we rode to Bath and on the Sunday we rode to Bristol, where we caught the train back to Axminster and rode home in what was by then a full-on gale. It wasn't easy riding a penny farthing along the Axe Estuary, I have to admit.

"In total, over the weekend we rode about 72 miles.

"Some friends joined us on the first day, but apart from that it was just the two of us.

Their penny farthings are new versions, based on the original geometry of the bicycles ridden in 1875, with the penny wheel being about 50" in diameter and, alas, no brakes.

Alistair and Sebastian hope to carry out more Easter adventures over the years.

Details of future events can be found at www.velovintage.co.uk

Regatta: Kate's still in charge

KATE Boalch has been re-elected chairman of the Beer Regatta committee.

Kate has been at the helm for several years now – though she stepped back last year when having a baby – and again stressed she was looking for a successor to take over in the future.

"It will be my last year," said Kate.

For the time being she will again be leading from the front with the support of her committee, which will include vice chairman Gayle Chapple and secretary Dave Lang, while Lynne Bees has returned as treasurer after Heather Teasedale stepped down.

Vivian Steer will remain in charge of publicity and in putting together the excellent programme along with Carol Green.

In her report to the annual general meeting, which was well attended, Kate also reported a healthy bank balance and revealed that the sailing programme would return to Regatta Day on Thursday having switched to the opening Saturday last year.

Sunday Funday was again deemed a great success with Nick Driver ensuring Robbie's Races were again a huge hit with the children and the committee said they are looking to build upon that and were looking at introducing some new ideas.

It was also agreed to invite back the Honiton Town Band, who gave a very popular concert on the opening Saturday.

Table top sale raises more than £750 for Cancer Research

THE 2016 Cancer Research table top sale in Beer has been pronounced a huge success with almost £800 raised for the charity, writes KEVIN FAHEY.

Trade in the Mariners' Hall was brisk from the moment the doors opened at 9am and continued right up until closing time at 1pm.

"We had a really good turnout and I am delighted to have raised so much money for a great charity with a total of £768," said Annie Boalch, on behalf of the Beer Friends who organised the event.

"I have to thank all the people who bought tables, the visitors for spending their money and the volunteers who gave up their time to make sure it was such a big success."

New discovery: Hitler's pal was locked up in Seaton

A NAZI who persuaded Adolf Hitler to resume his political career was briefly interned in Seaton, it has been revealed.

Seaton Museum curator Ted Gosling said a researcher/historian in Northampton only recently discovered that Ernst Hanfstaengl – nicknamed Putzi – spent a brief period of time at the Warner camp for enemy aliens.

The Harvard-educated Hanfstaengl, born in 1887, was appointed by Hitler to run the Nazi Party's foreign press bureau in 1931.

By then, Hanfstaengl had been part of Hitler's inner circle for about a decade, having persuaded Hitler to resume his political career after the future dictator came out of prison.

His brief as foreign press bureau chief included to

by Anders Larsson

arrange interviews with Hitler for the British press. But he didn't share Hitler's radical political beliefs, which led to problems.

After being warned in 1937 that Joseph Goebbels was part of a plot to kill him, Hanfstaengl left Germany, travelling to Switzerland before ending up in London.

According to Mr Gosling's source, Northampton-based David Tolley, Hanfstaengl was interned at the outbreak of war.

The time he spent at the Seaton camp is not made clear, but in correspondence with Mr Gosling, Mr Tolley wrote: "As you have confirmed that Seaton has no record of this, I enclose a file I made after discovery of it just a few weeks ago. I already knew about Putzi's career, but his brief period at Seaton came as a great surprise – especially as I can just remember the Warner camp.

"Hanfstaengl's stay in Seaton may only have been short, but in view of his history and early status within the Nazi hierarchy he must certainly be the most celebrated of the Seaton internees.

"You may wish to exhibit this at the museum."

According to Mr Tolley's file, Hanfstaengl was transported to Canada in June 1940 for safer detention.

In 1942 he was recruited by the US for propaganda work against Germany.

He returned to Germany after the war, and died in Munich in 1975.

Mr Gosling said: "We always thought Sebastian Haffner [a non-Jewish German writer who emigrated to England in 1938] was the most high-profile internee.

"A German television crew came to Seaton about 20 years ago for a documentary about Haffner's life.

"I didn't know about this [Hanfstaengl] until very recently.

"It will definitely be in the files of the museum, and we may exhibit it. He seemed to be a very interesting chap in some ways."

Overnight closures on A35 for two weeks

THE A35 between Honiton and Axminster will be closed overnight for nearly two weeks to allow work on the road to take place.

The road will be closed from April 11th to April 23rd, with the closure starting at 8pm and re-opening at 6am the following morning.

A fully signed diversion will be in operation appropriate to the closure.

There will be no route through the works area except for emergency vehicles.

Additional information for residents and businesses affected is available, on request, from connecta30@balfourbeatty.com

A dedicated phone number has been established for enquiries regarding the road closure and associated diversion only 01404 823871.

The closure schedule is subject to change due to weather.

BACK in 1907, five pioneering motorists took part in the world's first international motor rally from Peking to Paris – and now two Devon businessmen will attempt to emulate the feat.

Having spent the last year rebuilding a 1938 Ford Model 62, on June 12th this year, Nigel Lee – owner of Exmouth's World of Country Life family attraction – and local Exmouth vet Richard Turner – owner of St David's Veterinary Centre – will be pushing the restored vehicle to its limits on the sixth Peking To Paris Motor Challenge.

Starting from the Great Wall in Beijing, they will travel 8,510 miles across 12 countries over 35 days to reach Paris on July 17th.

More than a 100 classic cars will be taking part. However, Nigel and Richard are the only competitors from Devon!

The intrepid duo said: "It's going to be a gruelling journey – the furthest distance you can travel on land between two capital cities.

"There will undoubtedly be highs and lows but there're sure to be plenty of humorous stories too."

The journey will also attempt to raise important funds for FORCE Cancer Charity and you can help by donating via their website www.pekingparis2016.org

Nigel and Richard will also be posting images and a regular blog to so you can stay in touch with them.

Progress can be followed on their Facebook page: search for Peking to Paris – Nigel & Richard.

MARIE Curie had a successful and cheerful coffee morning last Thursday (April 7) in Axminster.

Organiser Sandy Sinclair said: "A good crowd,

A35 collision

ONE man was treated at the scene of a two car-accident on the A35 at Raymonds Hill, Axminster, but did not need to go to hospital.

A spokesperson for the ambulance service said that it despatched two ambulances after receiving a call at 11.04am on Tuesday, April 5th.

The spokesperson said that one male was treated for neck pain.

The road was partially blocked, but remained open.

TIC table decoration workshop

SARAH Cloud worked hard when visiting an event staged by Axminster Tourist Information Centre (TIC).

Sarah, who owns Cloud 9 Florists, was in charge of a table decoration workshop and was also asked to make the draw for the TIC's monthly 100 Club.

The winners of the draw were 1st Margaret Marciniak, 2nd Margaret Bartlett, 3rd Joy Raymond.

The event was a fundraiser for the TIC, and a spokesperson said: "Sarah gave a wonderful demonstration on how to make an Easter table decoration."

THE workshop was well-attended

"Everyone went home with their own table decoration after tea and cake."

OPEN FOR BUSINESS: ELF's Sara Eden, Mags Naylor, Dawn Mears and Julie King declare the shop open

Leukaemia charity shop opens in town

EXETER Leukaemia Fund (ELF) has set up shop in West Street, Axminster.

The shop opened on Friday April 1st, the ribbon being cut by ELF chief executive Mags Naylor, who said: "We are thrilled to open this shop in Axminster – an area where we help so many people."

"We are grateful to the local residents who have shown so much support so far and at ELF, we are keen to build even better relationships in the area."

The shop is named ShELF Life, and accepts donations of clothes, small furniture, household items, books, DVDs and unwanted gifts.

Jazz club and Doris Day for 85th birthday

AXMINSTER resident Morrison Brown celebrated his 85th birthday a few days early when whisked off to Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club in London.

His birthday was on Friday April 8th, but his children provided an early gift by organising the jazz club trip for Morrison and his wife Margaret the week before.

His daughter, Jane Lane, said: "My brother David and I organised a trip to see a Doris Day lookalike singing her songs."

"Funnily enough it was Doris Day's 92nd birthday that day, April 3rd."

"We had a fabulous day out."

Inverness-born Mr Morrison moved to Axminster 31 years ago with his wife.

He has a background in advertising and has worked for, among others, the BBC.

Mr Morrison started his own international advertising business around 1970, with Margaret as his secretary.

Both are keen golfers and bowlers.

Mr and Mrs Morrison have four children, ten grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

But it could have been a very different story.

Jane explained: "Dad nearly went to Australia for a £10 passage."

"But he chose to stay with mum instead and settle down here."

"It must have been love."

Patient group urges flu jab

THE patient participation group at Axminster Medical Practice says it is not too late for a flu jab.

A spokesperson said: "One unfortunate point that needs making is that we have a late winter flu bug rife in the Southwest and the practice is urging everyone who is in an at risk group and has not had a flu jab to make an appointment as soon as possible.

"Those who are considered at risk, the elderly and children should make their appointment without delay. "Sorry to be a harbinger of gloom and doom but influenza is a very nasty and dangerous illness."

The patient participation group is also involved with a project to collect patients' mobile phone numbers for a text message-based appointment reminder system.

The spokesperson said: "The project to collect mobile phone numbers for texting reminders and general information is starting to move with forms available at the surgery reception.

"Once this is established it will hopefully reduce the number of missed appointments and increase the uptake numbers for services like the annual flu jab."

Parkinson's Awareness Day

A PARKINSON'S Awareness Day will be held in Axminster to increase understanding of the condition and provide a wide range of information and advice for patients, families and carers.

The event will take place at Axminster Hospital on Thursday, April 21st from 10.30am to 4pm, during Parkinson's Awareness Week 2016.

The event is being organised by Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, which manages local community hospitals and health and social care services.

A number of experts will be on hand to offer guidance and support, including the Parkinson's specialist nurse for Eastern Devon, a community matron, physiotherapy and occupational therapy staff, a speech and language therapist and a social worker.

A Parkinson's patient will be there to offer advice and there will be a display of equipment. Refreshments will be available.

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

Del Pinheiro, therapy manager for the trust in Axminster, Seaton and Sidmouth, said the event was open to anyone in East Devon affected by Parkinson's, and added:

"We're keen to raise awareness of Parkinson's locally and promote a positive attitude towards the condition," she said.

"One of the main focuses of the event will be on empowering people to manage their own condition and take steps to improve their quality of life."

The therapy team plans to organise around four themed days like this each year, focusing on specific health conditions or education topics.

Mayor's Report

REFLECTING on the last two years, Axminster Mayor Douglas Hull described the period as "one of the most turbulent times I can remember".

The reflection was part of his Mayor's Report 2016, which was delivered during Axminster Annual Parish Meeting.

He said: "A major issue has been the reluctance of British Rail (sic) to sort out the culvert at Will-haye Lane.

"Then we move to Hunters Lodge [the A35 accident hotspot].

"Sometimes we think we are on to a winner, only to find that things have been put off.

"We then move to the county council closing the youth club and the ramifications of taking over the Pippins building.

"Also, the fight to retain services at the hospital and the library has taken up considerable time.

"Another more recent threat was the threat to the school crossing patrol in Lyme Road.

"After the demonstrations, the county council changed its mind and asked for forgiveness, so success for local action."

Street party news

STREET party plans to celebrate the Queen's 90th birthday are progressing in Axminster.

A community street party is to be held on Saturday, June 11th from 2.30pm, and is organised by a group of local residents.

Trinity Square, Silver Street and Minster Green will be used for the street party, which will have an All Things British (red, white and blue) theme.

Food will be available, but partygoers are welcome to bring their own. The Conservative Club will be open to everyone.

Tables for the street party can be booked from May 1st from The Conservative Club or by phoning Jill Vanderwolfe on 07980 471981.

Pampering for charity

A WIDE range of treatments including Indian head massage, reflexology, anti-aging facials, back, neck and shoulder massages will be available during a pamper evening at Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre.

The event is in aid of charity and will take place on Thursday, April 14th, starting at 7pm.

Proceeds from the event will go to the Wishing Well cancer support group and Axminster Food Bank.

Tickets are priced at £15 and £5.

Advance booking is essential and more information is available on 01297 32331.

Seaton doctors raise more than £1,275 for hospital friends

THE joint Grizzly running efforts of Dr Mark Welland and Dr Joe Kent, both from Seaton and Colyton Medical Practice, raised in excess of £1,275 for Seaton & District Hospital League of Friends.

Both completed the tough 20-mile course in three hours and 20 minutes.

Dr Welland, who chairs Seaton & District Hospital League of Friends, said: "I

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

would very much like to thank everyone who kindly supported us by sponsoring myself and Dr Kent.

"Together we raised £1,275 plus Gift Aid for the league, which will be used to fund our domiciliary dedicated palliative care nursing service.

"Our service, now much improved, re-structured, designed to cope with the demanding and challenging nature of its work, and also renamed Seaton Friends Hospiscare @ Home is already proving itself to be a tremendous asset in our community.

"We have a team of dedicated palliative care nurses providing round the clock specialist support to patients near the end of life choosing to remain in their own homes.

"The service is commissioned and paid for entirely by Seaton & District Hospital League of Friends, at a cost of approximately £250,000 a year."

The service is delivered by Hospiscare, a Devon charity which provides the expertise and operational support to employ and run the team.

Dr Welland added: "We are pleased to welcome Hospiscare's Director of Nursing, Liz Gibbons, as our guest speaker at our AGM this month.

"Liz has been instrumental in setting up the Seaton Friends Hospiscare @ Home service. Anyone wanting to know more about the League and our new and exciting partnership with Hospiscare are very welcome to attend our AGM on Wednesday April 13th from 6.30pm at Seaton Hospital."

You can contact League of Friends manager Lycia Moore on 01297 20143 for more information.

■ JAMES Sneddon-Nolemo, pictured above, may only be three-years-old, but he has already made 100 visits to Seaton Library.

He has been rewarded the Gold Bookstart Bear Club certificate and a Bookstart Bear.

Library supervisor Pene Davis said: "James has been a regular library visitor since he was tiny and loves choosing his books and DVDs, playing with the Duplo and trying out the crafts and colouring on offer. His favourite bedtime story at the moment is 'The Lorax' by Dr Seuss."

The Bookstart Bear Club is open for all children from birth until they start school and parents can register at any Devon Library if they want to take part.

Children receive a stamp each time they visit the library and for every six stamps they collect, they receive a Bookstart Bear Club certificate – there are ten to collect.

Retirement Living

Surgery says farewell to receptionist Kath

AFTER more than 40 years at Townsend House Medical Centre in Seaton, receptionist Kath Thurgood said a fond farewell to colleagues on March 24th.

There were flowers and gifts aplenty as Kath retired following 42 years' dedicated service.

Colleague Michaela Warren said: "Our popular receptionist has decided the time has come to sit back and put her feet up.

"We will definitely miss her cheery smile and unfailing helpfulness to patients and colleagues alike."

Colleagues had not told Kath that Pulman's View had been invited to appear towards the end of her shift.

Having had a few moments to compose herself, she described her time at the medical centre by saying: "It has been fantastic, it is a wonderful place to work."

"I got up in the morning and really enjoyed coming to work."

"The staff here are wonderful – and thank you to the patients for all the gifts."

Kath is set to hit the road soon. When asked what she will do in retirement, she said:

"Travel. My husband and I have a motorhome."

Those who missed saying goodbye to her will have another chance.

Michaela said: "We are holding a goodbye coffee morning on Saturday, April 23rd between 10 am and 11.30 am at the surgery."

"Please join us in wishing her all the best for her retirement."

■ FAREWELL: Kath (middle) with colleagues Lin Wilson, Linda Caborn, Ely Potter and Donna Burgoyne

■ ONE of East Devon's most senior nurses is preparing to climb Mount Snowdon at night to raise money for the Alzheimer's Society.

Seaton resident Di Walker, the senior nurse for community hospitals in Eastern Devon, will be aiming to reach the summit of the highest mountain in Wales using a torch and moonlight when she takes part in the Snowdon Midnight Challenge on Friday, May 13th.

Di said: "I was looking for a personal challenge but also wanted to raise money for a good cause."

She will be walking with three former school friends from Cardiff and more than 200 other trekkers.

Di added: "As my work brings me into contact with many patients with dementia, I decided that raising money for the Alzheimer's Society would be perfect."

She works for Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust and has a fundraising target of £400 for the challenge.

Lyme Regis Town Band needs you!

AS many people may know, Lyme Regis Town Band was re-formed in 1981 after a lapse of thirty years, using funds donated by the company who filmed 'The French Lieutenant's Woman' in the town during that year. The band soon established itself as an integral part of the local community and is well known for its regular open air concerts on the Marine Parade in Lyme Regis during the summer and its many appearances in the town over the Christmas period. The band also supports civic occasions, and events organised by the RNLI, the Carnival Committee, the Rotary Club and the Royal British Legion.

Looking to its future, the band is now embarking on a major recruitment drive as, for a variety of reasons, membership is particularly low at the moment. Chairman, Paul Snowball, explains "Players of all abilities are most welcome to join, including beginners keen to learn a brass instrument, rusty players wishing to return to playing and more accomplished players. The band is particularly keen to encourage ex-band members to consider re-joining. All new members are assured of a warm welcome and plenty of support and encouragement".

Instruments, music and uniform are provided and there is no charge or membership fee. Anyone interested is encouraged to call at the Woodmead Halls in Lyme Regis on a Tuesday evening, any time between 7.30 pm and 9.30 pm, when the band rehearses. The band has a website at www.lymeregistownband.co.uk or contact can be made via the Band Secretary Mrs Gilly Warr, on 01297 442719, Email: gkwarr46@gmail.com.

Bus companies join forces with county council for new 'Devon passport'

BUS companies and Devon County Council have teamed up to introduce the Devon Day ticket.

The ticket – which has been billed as 'A Passport To Devon' – became available on April 1st and entitles the holder to one day's travel on local bus services of all participating local bus companies within the Devon Day Bus area, which also includes Plymouth and Torbay.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Highway Management, said: "The Devon Day ticket gives passengers the freedom and flexibility to use most local bus services in Devon.

"This scheme is a passport to Devon – it's a much easier and cheaper way to explore the county by bus.

"Tickets can be bought from the driver of any of the participating services and they are then available to use at any time on the day of issue."

Initially, the Devon Day Bus will run for one season until the end of September.

The bus companies taking part in the initiative are Axe Valley Mini Travel, Country Bus, Dartline, Dartmouth Steam Railway and River Boat Company, Filton Travel, Hatch Green Coaches, Local Link, Plymouth City Bus, Stagecoach South West, Tally Ho, Target Travel, and Turners Tours.

The Devon Day Bus ticket costs £8.50 for adults, £5.70 for children (age 5 to 15 inclusive) and £17 for a family (maximum two adults and three children).

For more information, visit www.journeydevon.info/devon-day-ticket

■ FORMER Pulman's photographer Colin Bowerman has held a retrospective detailing 50 years of work as a newspaper photographer.

His week-long exhibition was held at Kennaway House, Sidmouth, after trustees offered him the chance to display some of his favourite photographs from news stories he has covered since becoming a press photographer at the age of 21.

Colin, who lives in Colyton, started his career as a trainee photographer on the Maidenhead Advertiser in Berkshire, becoming its chief photographer.

He then spent six years in Fleet Street with United Newspapers, covering major stories for newspapers in Yorkshire and Lancashire.

This was followed by an 18-month stint with a news agency in Guildford, supplying national newspapers with stories such as the Guildford bombing in 1974 when five people died and more than 60 were injured after the IRA bombed two pubs in Guildford.

His next move was to the Evening Post in Hemel Hempstead.

When the paper closed down in 1983, Colin, with his wife Diana and their two daughters,

Pulman's photographer celebrated at exhibition

■ ONE of Colin's photographs that was on display at Kennaway House as part of an exhibition showcasing 50 years of his work moved to East Devon, where he worked for Pulman's Weekly News.

Colin then worked as a freelance photographer for 15 years, supplying pictures to several local papers including the Pulman's View from series and a number of public relations companies. His photos have also appeared in a number of books.

Colin said: "As a way of thanking me for keeping the accounts for Kennaway House for two years, its trustees offered me the chance of holding this retrospective exhibition.

"I received some very complimentary comments from visitors during the week, and it was good to have such a beautiful setting for my work."

Rotary clubs looking to join forces with other local groups

ROTARY clubs in East Devon are keen for other clubs and charities in the area to join their community raffle.

Over the past nine years the Rotary Community Raffle has raised more than £200,000, shared between participating organisations.

Tickets are sold between May and October with a grand draw in November, and raffle secretary Keith Spittlehouse said: "At no cost to your organisation, Rotary will print raffle tickets with your group's name and provide cash prizes of £1000, £500, £250 and more.

"Your organisation keeps 90 per cent of the ticket sales income and returns the remaining ten per cent to Rotary to assist in covering prizes, ticket printing and the gaming board licence.

"Rotary makes no profit so more tickets sold means more cash prizes are available.

"There are no restrictions on organisations participating or numbers of tickets sold.

"In recent years winning tickets have been sold by sports clubs, pre-school groups, local charities, twinning associations, carnival clubs, PTFAs and others. Last year more than 21,000 tickets were sold."

Tickets for the 2016 draw are currently being printed and anyone interested can obtain further details online at www.SEDCR.org.uk or by contacting a local Rotary club directly.

■ CHAIRWOMAN Carol Iretton (left) and Luncheon Club president Pamela Spillane (right) welcomed Anne Swithinbank to the Victoria Hotel in Sidmouth

Guest gardening expert

EAST DEVON LUNCHEON CLUB: MEMBERS welcomed a special guest to this month's event at the Victoria Hotel in Sidmouth.

Anne Swithinbank, from Radio 4's Gardeners' Question Time was the guest speaker and faced a grilling from members. Anne's talk included anecdotes about her experience on working on Gardeners' Question Time for 20 years and also spoke about harmony in the garden, as both her and her horticulturist husband have different ideas on what's best for the garden.

Anne finished her talk by explaining how, if the ground is left undisturbed, the fungi in the soil helps to expand the roots. Anne told members you might get more crops by digging and feeding but there is more satisfaction by gardening with nature.

Inn signs story

PHOENIX LADIES CLUB: A fascinating talk and slide show, courtesy of Bob Musgrave, entitled "the Story Behind Inn Signs", entertained members in Axminster.

The obvious ones such as Royal Oak depicting an oak tree hiding Charles II in its branches with two Roundheads on horseback below, following the Battle of Worcester in 1651, is well known. How the Roundheads failed to see him amongst sparse foliage was a mystery, but most fortunate for Charles and his descendants.

Various Roman signs which exist today, obviously not all are originals, namely "The White Post" and "Red Post" showing people distances at crossroads between various towns. "Crosskeys" with St Peter in the background is a well-known sign, usually built near to the Church of the same name. The saint was given the keys of the kingdom by Jesus and this became his enduring legacy and emblem.

Exeter Uni grounds talk looms

COLYTON & DISTRICT GARDEN SOCIETY: When you are responsible for more than 150 hectares of gardens and grounds, you need to know your stuff.

At their next meeting, members and guests will hear from Iain Park, Director of Grounds for Exeter University, about the history of the grounds, their importance and how they are managed, now and for the future.

Iain has held this prestigious job at Exeter since 2007, prior to that he was Manager of Parks for the City of Edinburgh looking after over 1,600 hectares of public open space.

The meeting is at Colyford Memorial Hall on Wednesday, April 20th at 7.30pm.

As usual guests are very welcome – maybe you were a student at Exeter University and would like to be transported back.

ALL SAINTS & DISTRICT: 'Living in a Lighthouse' was the March talk, by Vanessa Langley, on the trials and tribulations of the men that cared for the light-houses and lamps around our shores.

The next meeting will be the Annual Meeting on Tuesday, April 12th at 2.30 in All Saints Village Hall. New members and visitors welcome.

COLYFORD: At the April meeting the speaker was Angela White on her time living in Hong Kong.

Nineteen members had lunch at the Harbour in Axmouth and seven new members had tea and cake with the committee.

There is a trip to Paignton steam railway and Dartmouth and a fish and chips lunch before the May Annual meeting.

One of the limericks read out for the Queen's 90th birthday was chosen as the competition entry for next month's Spring Group meeting.

HONITON EVENING: At the March meeting Deborah Chapman helped everyone create their own arrangement in a wine glass and selected the three best.

Branch has been going for 92 years and Joyce Cooper is the longest serving member. In recognition of over 40 years with the WI she was presented with a special WI Centenary Badge.

Forthcoming events include a Hot Cross Bun tea, a walk to Combe Raleigh Church and back to Honiton for lunch, and invitations from Feniton & Buckerell WI to attend a soup lunch and their April open meeting.

Notice of Devon Federation events included a Women's Health Matters Day at the Isca Centre, a day at Newton Abbot races, and an overnight trip to visit Blenheim Palace and Bletchley Park.

The next meeting at the Methodist Chapel will be at 7.15pm on Tuesday, April 19th with the talk about Ferne Animal Sanctuary.

RBL absorbs women

AXMINSTER WOMEN'S SECTION OF THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION celebrated its 89th anniversary recently, so a tea party took place during the March meeting.

Discussion centred on the change in status of the Women's Section on October 1st when it becomes a District of the RBL. It will no longer be semi-independent nor have national status. The National Standard will be laid up, although local standard bearers may still take part in Remembrance Services and other duties. Further information is awaited from Head Office, as there are still unanswered questions. A number of Women's Section branches will close within Devon as a result of the changes, however, not Axminster, which aims to celebrate its 90th anniversary next year.

The East Devon Group Meeting took place a few days later in the Senior Citizens when guest speaker, retired vet Michael Shaw, gave a talk on "James Herriot in the 21st Century". Gilly from Gilly's Delicatessen judged 18 Easter sponges in the competition won by Axminster Women's Section, which fended off competition from Honiton, Beer and Branscombe. President Audrey Lanchbery was presented with the competition cup by Michael Shaw.

Due to the uncertain future of some of the East Devon members, this may well be the final group meeting. Chairman Cynthia Joy expressed her concerns over the forthcoming changes and on behalf of members present, thanked Mrs Joy, Treasurer/Secretary Ursula Everett and County Representative Joan Sinden for their loyalty and dedication over a many years in running the group meetings.

KILMINGTON: On March 10th the branch hosted the Group Meeting, welcoming members from River Axe and All Saints WIs plus others including ladies from the village who helped with the Ploughman's Supper, during which Finnan Quincey played his keyboard.

Roger Snook from the hat shop in Bridport brought hats to try on and spoke on the history of his shop and the hats he sells to customers worldwide including showbusiness people and Madame Tussauds.

The Group competitions, judged by Jean Ransford, resulted in two firsts for Kilmington thanks to Phyllis and Christine and a first for All Saints. The next meeting is on April 14th at 7pm in the Village Hall, when Carol Boote will talk about Marie Curie.

Vicar swims to reach Sierra Leone

THE Team Leader for the Five Alive Mission Community in East Devon, The Reverend Simon Holloway, has travelled to Sierra Leone as a volunteer.

For a day job, he serves the parishes of Dalwood, Kilmington, Shute, Stockland and Yarcombe.

But The Reverend Holloway is on a break from the day job, having left the country on April 8th.

He travelled as part of a Sharing Of Ministry Abroad (SOMA) team, which will support and provide pastoral care for the leaders of Anglican churches in Freetown and other places for almost two weeks.

The Reverend Holloway served as volunteer with the Ministry of Education in Freetown from 1972-1975 and has returned three times – 2001, 2005 and 2009.

He said: "The country has suffered massively over the last 20 years, first with an eleven-year rebel war and then 18 months of the Ebola epidemic, which claimed 11,500 lives in the three countries of Sierra Leone, Liberia and Guinea."

To help finance his trip, he raised £550 through a sponsored swim at Flamingo Pool in Axminster.

He swam one nautical mile (74 lengths of 25 metres each) in a time of just under one hour and 14 minutes – and is very grateful to those who supported him.

All Saints pre-school open day

AN open day at All Saints Wise Owls Pre-School almost raised £150.

Held on Good Friday, the event had an Easter theme.

One of the organisers, Karina Felice, said: "The open day doubled as a fundraising event and the pre-school raised a fantastic £145, which will go towards enhancing the outside area.

"Wise Owls would like to thank all the families that attended for their support and generosity and would also like to thank Tesco for donating a large Easter egg, which went towards the Easter raffle."

■ SPRING: The weather was perfect for an open day

Premier Inn roof change

■ I REFER to the recent press report regarding the discussion at the March 21st Seaton Town Council Planning Committee, agenda item 16/0424.

Although the minutes of that meeting are not yet visible on the Seaton Town Council website, I assume the press report is accurate in that no caveat or objection has been made by the town council to the change of plan by Premier Inn from a pitched roof to a flat roof.

I wish to strongly express my disappointment at the council's reluctance to raise the issue of the change of roof. I think this was a poor decision for the following reasons:

- The surrounding buildings in Harbour Road all have pitched roofs, therefore a hotel with a flat roof would be completely out of keeping in the area.
 - The Tesco roof is not a benchmark to use. It is not an hotel; the Tesco roof is in fact not flat, but contains many items of equipment which would not apply to a hotel; the Tesco roof could not be pitched due to this equipment.
 - The adjacent Pebble Beach development by Bovis contains houses with pitched roofs, not flat roofs.
 - Seaton has a small number of large buildings with flat roofs, several of these along the Esplanade. These buildings are poor designs, some in urgent need of repair and renovation, and not a credit to Seaton. They are not fit benchmarks for a hotel.
 - The Knowle project in Sidmouth has recently made a positive decision for a pitched roof, rejecting the planning application for a flat roof.
 - Premier Inn were content with their original application for a pitched roof, and this was in keeping with other Premier Inns in nearby towns. There should be an advantage for Premier Inns to use their existing design criteria which has already been approved by Devon planning committees. There should therefore be no delay in processing an application for a pitched roof.
- The people of Seaton deserve the best hotel design and standard of construction, not second best just to make a desperate and hasty decision.

KEN GORF,
Seaton

Thanks for support

■ MAY I through your newspaper thank everyone for their support at our recent coffee morning held to raise funds for our club, in particular a thank you to the shops in Axminster and Chard who generously gave donations for our Tombola.

D ELDRIDGE,
Chairman, Chardstock Bowling Club

Refund over potholes

■ AFTER two weeks of off/on and great inconvenience to Townsend Avenue readers, the potholes have still not all been done – even those marked with yellow.

Potholes filled in will not last long. Where does our council tax go? A refund please and a town council that will fight for all residents.

Seaton has so much to offer but not enough people to fight for it. Come on!

SARAH BEVAN,
Seaton

Third world boot sale

■ I WONDER if you have ever had the pleasure of browsing through the Axminster Sunday afternoon boot sale? I use the word pleasure very loosely as it is quite the opposite.

The field on which this event is held is covered with sheep dung, is soft and soggy and reeks and is appalling to walk through. This is hardly conducive to the consumption of food and drink which is provided by the food wagon.

I visited this boot sale toward the end of last season and conditions were the same then. I spoke to a couple of stall holders and asked them why they put up with such conditions and they said they'd booked the spaces without realising what it was like and wouldn't be returning. I returned this year in the hope things had changed but they haven't and to see goods laid out on tarpaulin placed on top of the muck and people blindly trundling through, some trailing children and pushing prams, is reminiscent of something in the third world.

I fail to understand how this sort of thing can be allowed. Surely health and safety wouldn't approve. After all, sheep dung can be contaminated with E.coli.

ASHLEY BLAKE,
Forton

Bin v. council flowers

■ WE at the Seaton & District Club for the Blind and Partially Sighted recently had a visit from a representative of East Devon District Council, asking in what way they could be of help to us.

Amongst other things we said that there was nowhere in Seaton for us to dispose of broken glass and glass electric bulbs. The council representative said she would look into this. We subsequently had a letter telling us that there was a bin at Axminster.

That £400 for flowers at the council offices would more than cover the expense of a similar receptacle in Seaton.

AUDREY STENTON,
Seaton

Council "look stupid"

■ WHAT hypocrites Seaton Town Council are.

They complain over Martin Shaw making them look stupid, when they are doing a fine job of it themselves without him.

When it was front page news on View From Seaton that the new Undefleet playground had been opened by the Mayor – they'd shut it that same day because through their own incompetence the playground wasn't actually ready.

Lots of very disappointed children who'd waited years for the playground.

Why aren't they doing something about the pollution instead of complaining over trivial matters and especially when Martin Shaw has the guts to stand up and do something about it.

They should be supporting him for his efforts to try and help wildlife and keep our beaches and seawater clean.

JULIA ROEBUCK,
Beer

Independent Ottery?

■ OH dear, it does not take much to rattle our very independent councillors.

I do not wish to play games with them. It is, however, time that council tax payers in Ottery look carefully at the rapidly rising Council Tax precept introduced by the Independent town council and ask Mr Giles and Mrs Wright to justify spending £165,000 on running the Town Council.

I know property speculation can be expensive and risky, yet I gather £150,000 has been paid for the old NatWest bank site in Silver Street by the council tax payers of Ottery and it also requires even greater expenditure for extensive modernisation to convert it into a dreamed for library. We have an excellent library in Exeter, most people look things up on their laptop or mobile these days and experience shows libraries of the old kind are no longer economically viable. It would have been far better to look at providing public internet access in some local cafés or shops. I am sure it would be possible to find a local shop to act as pick-up or drop-off for library books from the County if a need really exists. This would be positive move for the highly-taxed local businesses. It was, after all, not so long ago that my great-grandfather Edward Manley established a lending library service at a penny a go, long before the big state intervened in such activities.

In the past it was normal for town councils to be made up of Independent councillors; however, the members had all been involved in the town for many years and held important roles, often employing many local people. They were truly independent and could make independent decisions as the need to spend large amounts of tax payers' money was not involved.

I find it quite rich of Mrs Wright, who demonstrated her far-left tendencies at every public meeting she attended during the General Election only last May. At that time Mrs Wright strongly believed in ending our nuclear deterrent, clearly a far-left policy. Please be honest and declare your leftist stance to all who see you as a so-called Independent.

Seaton Tramway

Children go free for Queen's 90th

SEATON Tramway is inviting children accompanied by fare-paying adults for a free ride to celebrate the Queen's 90th birthday on Thursday, April 21st.

Young explorers unable to travel on this day have other options, however, as a child will be given free entry anytime throughout 2016 when an adult, who travelled standard service on April 21st, presents their ticket from the day as proof of purchase.

Travellers gain exclusive access to remote parts of the Axe Valley, journeying through the Seaton Marshes and Colyford Common next to the Axe estuary, which plays host to an ever-changing variety of birds through the seasons. As an extra treat, Devon cream teas are available from the Tramstop Café.

Adult explorer tickets cost £10 per person – valid for all day travel, with trams departing from both Seaton and Colyton every half an hour.

To pre-book an invite to the special celebration, phone 01297 20375. Tickets and loyalty cards can be purchased at the Seaton Terminus and Colyton Station ticket offices, or online at: www.tram.co.uk

ORIGINALLY from Coventry and having moved around the UK and Europe, Helen James and her family settled in Axminster seven years ago.

Helen, manager at the Arc charity shop, has been married to Steve for 25 years and they have two teenage daughters at Axe Valley College.

After years of unhappy dieting, Helen recently set up Nutrir*, a non-profit training course and continuing support group teaching conscious, mindful eating.

● TELL us a little about your career background...

I've had lots of 'filler' jobs and am proud to say that wherever we lived I've either been employed or a mature student, with roles as varied as luxury car sales to teaching assistant. For the last four years I have been privileged to work with Arc charity shop; there is something special about working with people who work for free in the community. Arc provides essential counselling services in association with the medical practice here in Axminster.

● WHAT inspired you to set up Nutrir*?

Nutrir* has come about from my years and years of being an unhappy dieter, always gaining and losing the same four stone-plus. My original intention was to just set up a compassionate support group for likeminded dieters – I'm quite a creative person and really enjoyed designing the brand and devising IncEntive, a cash reward system linked to BMI per cent healthy rate weight loss.

Nutrir* is relatively new and we are very excited to be entering Richard Branson's #VOOM competition – it would be fantastic for readers to get behind us by voting or by pre-paying some membership fees, or altruistically showing their support at and sharing their support at <https://www.vmbvroom.com/pitches/nutrir>

● WHAT is mindful eating and how does this differ to other diets?

I was fortunate to attend a mindfulness for health course with a lovely lady called Kath Woods at Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre. Mindfulness helps me manage a chronic pain condition and the timing of this course coincided with Nutrir*'s creation: I quickly realised the benefits of focusing these principles towards being food happy. I like to call it 'conscious eating' to make it more accessible – mindful eating is to mindfulness as conscious eating is to thinking! It is very counter intuitive to be asked to give your full focus to food when we have spent years mindlessly eating and perhaps feeling lots of guilt around our food choices.

60 seconds

● WHAT are the health benefits?

We are told about the benefits of not being overweight every day – my research for Nutrir* has clearly shown that the vast diet industry has a vested interest in keeping us on diets. Ask any dieter how that's going! To have a better relationship with food, or to be food happy, is simply achieved by positively focusing our full attention on what we've chosen to eat – gaining as much enjoyment from each bite as we possibly can. To do this, we restrict nothing and look forward to eating the foods we desire; never creating cravings by allowing all foods; good food mental health. We are also very pleased to announce a new home soon at Flamingo Pool – watch this space – positive food, mental health and fitness under one roof!

● WHY do you think so many people struggle to stick to a healthy diet?
The diet industry needs dieters more than we need the industry; traditional diets often mean well, but ultimately profit from repeat business. Nutrir* is a social enterprise – set up to re-invest profits and support Arc too. I believe that Nutrir* members can feel the extra benefit of knowing they're helping others at the same time as helping themselves – true group support.

● WHAT do you enjoy doing in your spare time?
I look forward to music festival season and enjoy taking my VW to them, I find volunteering with Oxfam a great way to secure my ticket to Glastonbury each year. I also look forward to something friends have dubbed 'fortnightly adult creche' in the pub around the corner.

● WHAT do you like about living in the local area?
Daily contact with customers in Arc charity shop, we have lots of regulars and enjoy the odd coffee and music session right in the shop in Chard Street. I feel lucky to live where so many great dog walks are available on our doorstep; Call our Kooikerhondje loves it too.

For more information on Nutrir* visit <http://nutrir.com> and for more details on Arc visit www.arcaxminster.org

Stokes Partners LLP

CHANGES to Inheritance Tax

Changes to inheritance tax will mean family members may be able to inherit as much as £1 million from 2020 without paying inheritance tax – so long as the estate goes to children or grandchildren.

The current position

Everyone is entitled to pass on £325,000 of wealth tax free, regardless of whether or not they own a property. This is known as the “nil rate band”. Any assets in an estate above this amount may incur an inheritance tax charge of up to 40%.

Married couples and civil partners

Married couples and civil partners passing estates to each other are entitled to claim on second death the unused nil rate band. This could on the death of the surviving spouse provide an allowance of up to £650,000 before tax is payable.

What is changing?

The government has announced that from 6 April 2017, an additional nil rate band of £100,000 will be available when a residence is passed on death to direct descendants (RNRB). This increases to £175,000 from 2020, or £350,000 in case of an unused RNRB on second death.

Creative Director Hollie Myall (nee Price), who has over 14 years experience, in salons across the Lyme Regis and Axminster areas, established Boudicca Hair in 2014.

Tyler Cox and Daria Rozumiecka have joined Hollie at Boudicca Hair, both of whom have previously worked in salons in the Yeovil area.

At Boudicca Hair they love to inspire you with their ideas and expertise. Everything they do is to make you feel special and be the best that you can be.

The team of top hair stylists at Boudicca are dedicated

Bluebird & Buttercup

NESTLED in a corner within The George Shopping Centre, you will find the delightful Bluebird and Buttercup. Regularly described by customers as a "treasure trove", here you will find an eclectic mix of gifts from organic cotton babywear to handbags made in North Wales, gifts for gardeners, silver jewellery made in Devon, pewter jewellery from a husband and wife team in Cornwall, beautiful stitched gifts from Somerset and Hampshire, including a fun chicken and heart range, organic facial oils from the widely acclaimed Lucy at OV Naturals in Somerset, amazing and locally made fused glass gifts from the very creative Sally, handmade cushions and lampshades from the very talented Melissa here in Crewkerne, beautiful handmade baby shoes, hats and jackets from the very clever Julia also from Crewkerne amongst many other treasures.

"The level of craftsmanship that is on our doorstep is quite incredible", says Sam, owner of Bluebird and Buttercup. "There is simply no need to venture far to find talented, creative people who put so much love, care and passion into their products. Buying a gift for a friend or family, or indeed treating oneself, is made far more pleasurable if you know it has been made individually with love and care rather than in a mass produced environment. I consider myself to be very lucky to be dealing with such talented, creative people".

Thimbleberry Naturals

Thimbleberry Naturals offers an array of soaps for everyone. All of which are made with top quality natural ingredients that are both paraben free and cruelty free. Thimbleberry Naturals pride themselves on the fact that all of their products are suitable for sensitive skin. As well as our original soaps they also offer shampoo bars and vegan soaps. All of the ingredients within the products are selectively sourced from the UK and must adhere to the strict standards that Thimbleberry Naturals follow. First and foremost they must be natural and where possible, organic. All products must all be paraben free, cruelty free and SLS free and suitable for sensitive skin. But Thimbleberry Naturals don't believe that you should sacrifice fun and prettiness for ethics. We think the bathroom should be a beautiful place so whether your tastes are more the sleekness of our skincare range or the shamelessly frivolous fun of our bath cakes and truffles we feel sure that you'll find something that does you good and looks great. Perfect presents but also great practical everyday treats. We pride ourselves on finding the best natural and organic skincare brands that Britain has to offer all at a price, which means you can always try something new.

Honiton Agricultural Show

The Honiton & District Agricultural Association hold their 126th show on Thursday, 4th August 2016. The Grand Parade is one of the many highlights of the main ring activities where the day's livestock winners proudly parade. The 2016 main ring will be a hive of activity; fantastic acts including top FMX Rider Jamie Squibb. "The Sheep Show" returns to Honiton with its humorous, educational, live stage show all about sheep, 9 breeds will be present and not to miss is the sheep shearing and their "dancing sheep"! For 2016 we introduce a new "Alpaca Village", come and learn all about these fascinating animals and even purchase some goods made from Alpaca fibres. The lower field incorporates all that is countryside with hurdle making, ferret racing, a blacksmiths guild and a trip down memory lane with a vintage tractor section with over 100 vehicles on display. Honiton plays host to the West of England Hound Show, a show within a show, which attracts a huge following countryside. There is the wonderful dog show comprising both pedigree and fun classes for the pet pooch. If chickens are your interest we have a fantastic Poultry show and sale. We have entertainment in abundance for children with Professor Twistopher's Punch and Judy, as seen on the hugely popular and wildly acclaimed television series Downton Abbey or maybe a donkey ride will interest. With over 400 trade stands, including crafts, shopping and a fabulous food hall there really is something for everyone. We have a huge and diverse range of food courts to tickle your taste buds with local caterers offering the very best produce; why not start with a delicious bacon roll lunch with a Dartmoor Farmer's Beef Burger from Kenniford and end the day with a refreshing Pimms from local Otter Brewery. Honiton prides itself on being a truly traditional agricultural show with a unique atmosphere it brings new and traditional agriculture together so make a note in the diary, 4th August, we all look forward to welcoming you. Don't forget accompanied under 16's are free. For further details on the show, trade enquires, schedules or details on becoming a member of the Association with all its benefits please contact the secretary on 01404 41794 or visit the website www.honitonshow.co.uk or follow us on twitter @honitonshow1890.

The Memory Cafe

A BUSY afternoon was had at this month's Memory Cafe! Tim Wheeler, who is the chairman of the Colyford Goose Fayre Committee, came along to very generously present us with a cheque for £350. Tim told of how much the committee is impressed with the success of the Memory Cafe and were very happy to support such a worthwhile cause.

Later in the afternoon Sue from Colyton Garden Shop talked about planting Violas. She gave a quick demonstration, including some particularly useful tips. She finished the whole thing off by wrapping the pot in pretty tissue paper. Then it was the turn of the Cafe's visitors - they potted, planted and all proudly took their viola home.

Next month the Memory Cafe is going to repeat the popular 'Chair Exercises' (which does seem to provoke rather a lot of hilarity) for those who wish to take part and volunteer, Sue, will be entertaining with the contents of her very special Memory Box.

If you a friend or a loved one are experiencing memory loss or have been diagnosed with early dementia the Memory Cafe might be just the place for you both to enjoy a relaxing fun-filled afternoon together.

Everyone has fun even the volunteers!

Why not come along and see if volunteering for the Memory Cafe is something you'd like to do?

Mark's not here

Mark Watson

MULTI-AWARD winning comedy star Mark Watson returns with the highly anticipated follow-up to his hugely successful show Flaws. In 2016 Watson goes on an incredible 69-date tour with his new show I'm Not Here.

A seemingly minor problem at an airport forms the starting point of the show, which spirals into an examination of identity in the digital age and a search for meaning in our lives; luckily with an enormous number of jokes, as well as Watson's customary flailing, chaotic audience interactions and all sorts of other fun.

As one of the most decorated performers on the UK comedy scene Mark Watson was nominated for Best Newcomer at the 2005 Perrier Awards, before being awarded the 2006 if.comedy Panel Prize. He took home the Time Out Critics Choice Award in 2006 and has been nominated for a Barry Award from the Melbourne Comedy Festival.

Mark Watson was the star of Dave TV's Road to Rio, as well as the host of BBC 4's We Need Answers. He has also regularly appeared on BBC 2's Never Mind The Buzzcocks, and Mock the Week, BBC 1's Would I Lie To You and Have I Got News For You, and Dave's Argumental. He has performed stand-up on BBC 1's Live At The Apollo, Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow and Channel 4's Comedy Gala.

As well as his TV work Mark has had a number of critically acclaimed radio shows, including his BBC Radio 4 series' Mark Watson Makes The World Substantially Better, Mark Watson's Live Address To The Nation and Mark Watson Talks A Bit About Life, as well as 100 Million or Bust on BBC Radio 5 Live, where he is also a regular contributor to Fight Talk.

Mark Watson brings the 'I'm Not Here' tour to The Octagon Theatre, Yeovil on Friday, April 22nd (www.octagon-theatre.co.uk, 01935 422884).

Shear Nostalgia

Tribute to the George Shearing Quintet

THE Craig Milverton Trio returns to Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, April 29th, to pay tribute to the legendary British jazz pianist, composer and arranger, Sir George Shearing. The Shearing Quintet was hugely popular in the 1950s and early 60s with hit records such as 'Roses of Picardy', 'East of the Sun' and 'September Song'.

Accompanied by Dominic Ashworth on guitar and Paul Sawtell on vibraphone, the Craig Milverton Trio will recreate the unmistakable 'Shearing Sound', playing many of original close harmony arrangements used by the Shearing Quintet.

This will be an evening of pure nostalgia for those of a certain age and if you missed the Shearing magic first time around, now is your chance to find out why his music became the soundtrack of an era.

The Craig Milverton Trio perform their tribute to the George Shearing Quintet on Friday, April 29th at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House, at 8pm. Tickets are £16 (pre-show supper available for £13 at 7pm, booked in advance). For more details or to book call 01460 54973 or visit the website at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Psychic Vibration on the Medium Wave

Don't miss this emotional rollercoaster ride of an evening - a night to remember

EX-HAIRDRESSER Steve Holbrook, regarded by many as one of the UK's top Clairvoyant Mediums, is visiting locally very shortly, and he explains how he hears the voices of our loved ones that have passed away. His ability started from behind the salon chair, and he now visits Theatres and Hotels around the country, and as far as the Caribbean, demonstrating his unique ability to act as a telephone exchange between this world and the Spirit world.

Steve says that he was always aware from being a child that life existed beyond the grave, when he awoke to find five soldiers marching through his bedroom, but could only see the top half of them floating through the room. "This was very unnerving experience but it was to give me an early glimpse of what was to come, and now it's as natural as breathing to me"

Steve started work in Leeds city centre in a busy hairdressing salon, and feels that the years he spent behind the chair, having that personal contact with the customers, stimulated this rare, yet natural ability to hear the voices of spirits. People used to come in and book for their hair cut, and often got more than they bargained for when he passed on a message from their loved one. Steve was always the busiest stylist, and had a 6 week waiting list if people didn't re-book immediately, and says "I often wonder if they kept coming back for my ability as a hair stylist, or the possibility that they might receive a message from a relative who had passed away!"

He now gives messages of re-assurance to people who have lost their loved ones, and by communicating with them, helps them understand that life continues, just simply in a different dimension. One lady's mum came through to her in one of Steve's messages, and said to the daughter "don't forget the brown Prada handbag on Friday". The lady replied "I'm putting it in my mums coffin on Friday, she only died 5 days ago". Who would know this information?

Steve has raised tens of thousands of pounds for charities over the years, £50000 for his local hospice in Wakefield, £5000 for MacMillan Support, and most recently our current total for PACT - a charity that helps terminally ill children and their parents across the country - is almost £21000. He is dedicated to raising funds and awareness for this charity.

Have you got the X-Factor?

THE X Factor Production Team will be holding Open Auditions on Thursday, April 28th in The Princesshay Shopping Centre from 10am-5pm, looking for a range of fresh talent.

If you're interested in performing in front of them, then come down and say hello.

Honey Farm abuzz with visitors

DESPITE the usual mixture of sun and rain over the last weekend, the Honey Farm was abuzz with visitors eager to talk about bees and how to help them. We were thrilled to see all of our regulars turning up to see us after the winter break and also a good number of visitors finding us for the first time.

Some fortunate people were able to take advantage of the odd periods of lovely sunshine and sit outside. In the tearoom we were entertained by our six month old granddaughter, Alice, who has recently found her voice and enjoys showing off her repertoire of sounds, specialising in blowing raspberries, accompanied by bubbles!

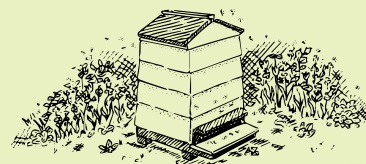

Outside, Ken has been ploughing up the annual garden flower patch ready for its new sowing and we look forward to a mass of bright flowers for our bees and other pollinators.

We have our scrumptious toasties, sky - high cheese scones, delicious cakes and cream teas, all made here for you to enjoy and we have also added jacket potatoes this season. You have to try Emma's beef chilli filling!

Don't forget we are now open an extra day: Thursday - Sunday 10.00am - 5.00pm. Come and be part of this special place.

Classical String Octet to perform in Village Church

THE Classical String Octet will give a special performance on May 1st at the All Saints Church in Merriott. This will be the largest gathering of talented musicians visiting the church. The repertoire for the afternoon will include both Shostakovich Octet (Prelude and Scherzo) and the Mendelssohn Octet, performed by members of the Fisher Sinfonia.

It is the 15th Concert co-ordinated by Joseph Fisher the founder of the Fisher Sinfonia, whose members regularly work with major UK orchestras. The octet includes members from the London Symphony Orchestra, the Philharmonia Orchestra, the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra and the BBC National Orchestra of Wales.

The programme presented is usually for two cellos, however the 2nd cello has had a slight upgrade with David Stark (Principal Double Bass of the BBC National Orchestra of Wales) performing these works on his Double Bass. The vast increase in depth of sound in the ensemble will brighten up any Sunday afternoon; be sure not to miss this rare concert opportunity.

The afternoon will start with Refreshments at 2.30pm for a 3pm concert at All Saints Church, Merriott, TA165PS. As with previous concerts profits from the event will go towards the Church Fabric Fund. Tickets for this special event will be £8 and available from Osborne Stores, Merriott, Crewkerne Information Centre or contact 0146076360 to reserve.

Greens Restaurant at Lyme Regis Golf Club

GREENS is the brand-new restaurant at Lyme Regis Golf Club under the leadership of head chef Stephen Pielesz. The golf club is situated on Timber Hill in Lyme Regis, on the cliff top and the restaurant is open to the general public all year round; you do not need to be a member or even a golfer to experience the exquisite cuisine that is now on offer.

Head Chef Steve spent most of his childhood years living in Charmouth and went to school at Woodroffe, first joining Lyme Regis Golf Club as a junior at the age of 14. He then left home at 17 and moved to France where he began his career at L'Aubergade in Puymarol under the guidance of 3* Michelin Chef, Michel Trama.

Steve returned to the UK at 18 years old to become the Junior Sous at Bath Spa Hotel where he spent 4 years honing his skills and developing his enthusiasm for fine British cuisine. From there, he joined the Michelin star restaurant at Chewton Glen Hotel. When he left, at the age of 26 he became the Executive Head Chef at Bowood Golf and Country Club. Here he learned more about catering for large functions, including weddings, and began to focus back on his golf game at the same time.

In 2009 Stephen was drawn back to Dorset and became Head Chef at The Bridge House Hotel in Beaminster where he has held two AA rosettes for the last five years, cooking good quality British food using local produce.

After recently becoming a father for the first time, he decided that now is the time for a new work challenge and Lyme Regis Golf Club are delighted that he has chosen to launch Greens Restaurant with them.

The clubhouse looks out onto the course and offers a relaxed environment for everyone to enjoy the excellent catering at Greens. The restaurant can seat 110 people and has ample free parking, which is a huge rarity in Lyme Regis!

With Steve at the helm everything on the menu is freshly prepared and made in-house using the finest local ingredients. Even the things you may not ordinarily think about are home made. Museli, bread, chutneys, jams, it's all made on the premises and the quality shines through.

Sunday lunch has always been a firm favourite and is now more popular than ever at Greens. Lunch is served al-a-carte, so it's fresh and piping hot and isn't sat around on a hot plate for hours on end, like it would be at a carvery.

The first class catering at Greens restaurant, coupled with the outstanding views across the bay from the course, make it the ideal location and the perfect place to hold your private event, party, function, or wedding. The professional approach, attention to detail and friendly staff will ensure that your private function or party will be one to remember. All budgets can be catered for and bespoke packages arranged. Wedding menus will be tailor made by Steve who will work closely with you to produce a menu that you love and that fits to your budget.

The dining room and lounge areas all overlook the golf course and there is easy access to the south-facing patio area throughout the year, which gives members and visitors alike the opportunity to enjoy al-fresco dining in the open air during the warmer months.

To make a booking please call the club on 01297 442963, and select option 4.

Americana and roots from The Buffalo Gals

THE Marine Theatre is the stage for the vibrant Buffalo Gals six-piece band: Americana and roots-inspired old string-band in the bluegrass tradition.

The six band members include banjos, fiddle, vocals, harmonies and percussion from one band member's feet! This unique skill, known as 'Appalachian step-dance' or 'clogging', is a traditional style of syncopated and fascinating dance or 'foot drumming'. It provides a hypnotic and impressive rhythm, maintained throughout the set. But it comes with a warning: you will find yourself wanting to join in!

Combining a love of traditional sounds with an energetic enthusiasm for contemporary, fresh arrangement, the Buffalo Gals appeal to audiences of all ages, whether aficionados of old-time country music or completely new to its charms.

Described by Maverick Magazine as "...one of the finest old-time country string bands to date, and by far one of the most talented and inventive groups I've so far come across". We suggest you saddle up and find a hitching post at the Marine Theatre for a truly

SHUTE FOR THE STARS

Clive Emson
LAND AND PROPERTY AUCTIONEERS

KEEN interest is expected when a character house in the sought after village of Kilmington comes to auction.

Four-bedroomed The Manse in Shute Road has a freehold guide price of £225,000 to £240,000.

It is among the lots listed for sale by the regional land and property auctioneers Clive Emson in May.

Auctioneer Graham Barton said: "This is a handsome character four bedroomed house with garden and parking which will appeal to owner occupiers as well as members of the building fraternity looking for a modest project.

"Conveniently located for the amenities of this much sought after village in East Devon, this property is expected to attract keen interest at auction."

Also going under the hammer is a two-bedroom, two-storey cottage tucked away in the favoured old part of Seaton town centre in Fore Street.

The property at 3 Mulberry Cottages has a freehold guide of £100,000 to £110,000.

Clive Emson Auctioneers holds eight rounds of auctions at five locations from Essex to Cornwall on consecutive days every six weeks, this time with a total of 152 lots.

The independent, family-run firm continued its flying start to the year with its second round of auctions in March offering 170 lots, raising a total of over £19 million for its clients.

Starting at 11am, the third of Clive Emson's eight regional West Country auctions in 2016 takes place at the St Mellion International Resort, St Mellion, Cornwall, on Friday May 6.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Tip Top Trees

Tip Top Trees has been established for 16 years, based in Honiton we cover all areas of East Devon and Exeter.

Our services include all aspects of tree work including, crown reduction, pruning and felling, TPO Application and Conservation Orders.

All other aspects of garden care, fencing and landscaping undertaken.

We are fully insured and qualified and we pride ourselves on our quality of service and providing a Tip Top job every time.

Was started by Sean Kelly in May 1998, after several years of working with other tree companies, Sean decided that his future prospects in the industry that he loved would be better served by going it alone.

He spent several months gaining the extra qualifications needed to work by himself and carrying out market research to put together his businessplan.

During this time he went to the Princes Youth Business Trust with his ideas and with their help was successfully granted a loan to start up Tip Top Trees.

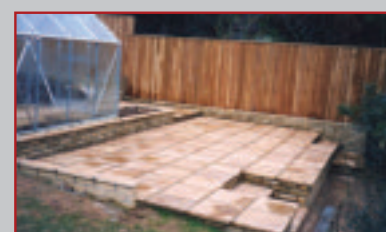

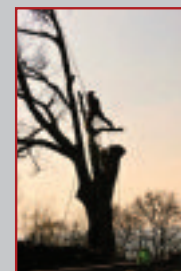

After working by himself for 6 months Sean realised the best way forward was to employ someone else. He did this and since then the business has gone from strength to strength.

Sean has always taken great pride in his work and all jobs are completed to his own high standards. As you will see from the online Portfolio.

"Thanks for visiting our site" Sean Kelly.

Centenary-themed D-Max goes straight to the top of the range

ISUZU continues to celebrate its centenary in style with a new Centurion special edition of the award-winning D-Max, released to mark 100 years since the company set up operations in Tokyo, Japan. Fittingly, for the centenary-themed pick-up, only 100 of the Centurion models will be produced and it goes on sale on 9 April – the 100th day of the year.

Making a bold impression as the ultimate pick-up, the Centurion boasts striking exterior enhancements and all-new in-car entertainment features. Ranking as the best-equipped D-Max ever to be available on sale in the UK, the automatic transmission, double-cab Centurion is finished in a sophisticated, cool Fjord Blue colour.

In addition to the comprehensive spec list included within the £30,999 (CVOTR) price tag, every Centurion features a unique plaque numbered 1-100. As a memento, a branded presentation box will be awarded to every customer picking up their new D-Max Centurion, within which a unique items list and personalised collection certificate will be included.

All in, the Centurion includes more than £11,000-worth of additional bespoke features. The exterior is proudly adorned with all-new tailor-made 19-inch black and silver Hurricane alloys fitted with Pirelli Scorpion Zero tyres. Bold front and rear spoiler fittings create the impression of a more planted stance, without compromising ride-height or ground clearance.

Robust stainless steel side bars and side-steps along with black and silver roof bars add further practicality and convenience as well as enhancing the pick-up's visual appeal. The overall profile of the Centurion is also unique, thanks to the load bed's eye-catching Alpha Sports tonneau cover – with remote tailgate locking – which adds eye-catching rear buttresses to the trailing edge of the passenger cabin. The unique exterior features go on to include a pair of combination LEDs incorporating daytime running lamps and fog lamps which are neatly integrated into the front bumper.

Inside, the commanding centenary special D-Max is further refined with a Centurion leather trim upgrade, making for sleek leather upholstery on the seats, front centre arm rest and steering wheel. The front and rear door entry guards display an illuminated Isuzu logo, with each model containing a Centurion-branded Bed Rug dedicated to the brand's centenary.

Keeping up with the latest technology, the Centurion is kitted out with an all-new Alpine in-car entertainment system accessed through an eight-inch touch-screen display, while audio output is delivered through six Alpine speakers (complete with an active subwoofer). Rear passengers are entertained by a drop-down, ceiling-mounted 10.2-inch Alpine monitor, with two wireless headphone sets so they can enjoy DVDs without disturbing the driver. A rear camera aids parking and manoeuvring with the image cleverly displayed within the rear view mirror when reversing.

The powerful beating heart of the Centurion remains the highly efficient 2.5-litre twin-turbo diesel engine, producing 163 PS and 400 Nm of torque. Isuzu's robust diesel returns a highly impressive fuel economy of 38.7 mpg (NEDC combined). Like the rest of the D-Max range, the new Centurion also benefits from a heavyweight towing capacity of 3.5 tonnes.

William Brown, Operations Director at Isuzu UK, said: "This year with the celebration of the company's centenary, and the release of the Centurion is one of the major highlights. We felt it appropriate to offer customers the pinnacle in robust, dependable and yet highly refined pick-ups, and this new limited run model demonstrates just how versatile our award-winning Isuzu D-Max is."

Like all new Isuzu pick-ups sold in the UK, the D-Max Centurion comes with the company's five-year / 125,000 mile warranty.

Renault Kadjar adds new top-of-the-range version and transmissions option

RENAULT has strengthened its acclaimed Kadjar line-up with the addition of a top-of-the-range Signature S Nav version and the introduction of the 7-speed efficient Dual Clutch (EDC) automatic gearbox combined with the ENERGY TCe 130 engine.

Offering drivers greater choice and heightening the appeal of the award-winning Renault Kadjar, the enhancements introduce even higher levels of comfort, convenience and refinement to the family crossover.

Based on the extensively-equipped Signature Nav version, the Signature S Nav specification adds full black leather upholstery with electrically-adjustable driver's seat height and heated front seats; together with hands-free parking, blind spot warning, rear parking camera and parking sensors to both the front and rear. Kadjar Signature S Nav is priced from £23,695 OTR – a premium of £1,400 over the Signature Nav but with £1,750 of additional equipment.

Buyers can specify the Signature S Nav with a choice of two diesels and one petrol engine, automatic EDC or manual transmission, and either two-wheel drive or four-wheel drive.

The Signature S Nav's additional equipment builds upon an extensive specification that includes panoramic sunroof, dual-zone climate control, lane departure warning, traffic sign recognition, hands free keycard, heated and folding door mirrors, R-Link 2 multimedia system with 7" touchscreen, TomTom® LIVE services with Western European mapping, Bluetooth® and hands-free calls and BOSE sound system.

With the launch of this new top-of-the-range version, Renault Kadjar customers are now able to choose from a total of five trim levels.

The availability of the advanced, highly responsive 7-speed EDC gearbox on the flexible ENERGY TCe130 engine allows buyers, from Dynamique Nav trim upwards, to order an automatic, petrol-engined Renault Kadjar for the first time. Priced at £1,200 more than the equivalent manual version, the EDC dual clutch transmission changes gear almost instantly with CO2 output and combined fuel consumption almost the same as that of the manual.

Since it arrived in the UK in September 2015, the Kadjar has strengthened Renault's presence in the crossover market – building on the success of its compact crossover sibling, Captur. Its combination of striking design, efficient powertrains, spacious interior, high levels of standard specification, best-in-class residual values and five-star Euro NCAP rating have proved a hit with British car buyers.

Kadjar's introduction to the range in 2015 has helped Renault's sales grow by 16 per cent, growing at over three times the rate of the market to 23,959 vehicles compared to a market that grew by 5.1 per cent.

The Renault Kadjar range starts from £17,995 OTR and comes with a four-year warranty and Renault Assistance package as standard.

The hero of BeeZero: Hyundai Motor powers world's first fuel cell car sharing service

HYUNDAI Motor's ix35 Fuel Cell is the star of the world's first fuel cell powered zero-emission car sharing service BeeZero, to be launched in Munich, Germany this summer. BeeZero, run by a newly founded subsidiary of The Linde Group, will feature 50 Hyundai ix35 Fuel Cell electric vehicles for public use.

"The new BeeZero car sharing offer is pioneering sustainable mobility," says Thomas A. Schmid, Chief Operating Officer at Hyundai Motor Europe. "Featuring the Hyundai ix35 Fuel Cell, BeeZero will not only be the first car sharing service using hydrogen-powered zero-emission cars, but will also offer comfortable and reliable transportation for the public's everyday needs."

"We expect to gain valuable information from day-to-day fleet operations which we will use to further develop our hydrogen technologies and to help expand the hydrogen infrastructure," said Dr Christian Bruch, member of the Executive Board of Linde AG. "BeeZero synergises two mobility trends that are gaining a lot of ground at the moment - car sharing and zero emissions - and will bring the benefits of fuel cell technology to a wider group of potential users."

600 kilometres on a single tank

The BeeZero car sharing service will be run on a zone-based model. The fleet of fifty ix35 Fuel Cell cars will be available in Munich's city centre and also in the areas of Schwabing, Haidhausen, Au and Glockenbachviertel. As with conventional car sharing services, the cars can be easily booked online or via a smartphone app.

The Hyundai ix35 Fuel Cell can travel about 600 kilometres on a single tank, making it ideal for longer journeys too, to the Bavarian lakes or the mountains for example, and not just for short trips in the city. Hydrogen fuel for BeeZero is sourced from sustainable production processes, making it completely carbon neutral.

A leader in electric mobility

The ix35 Fuel Cell is the world's first mass-produced and commercially available fuel cell electric vehicle (FCEV). Currently there are more than 250 Hyundai ix35 Fuel Cell SUVs on European roads in 13 countries. That is more than all FCEVs from every other manufacturer combined. And with the IONIQ, to be launched this year,

Hyundai introduces the world's first car to offer hybrid, plug-in hybrid and all-electric powertrains in a single body type.

"With our ix35 Fuel Cell electric vehicle and several hybrid and plug-in hybrid models sold around the world, Hyundai Motor has already pioneered electric powertrains," says Thomas A. Schmid, Chief Operating Officer at Hyundai Motor Europe. "Now, with the launch of the IONIQ, we take the lead as the only car brand with hybrid, plug-in hybrid and electric as well as fuel cell vehicles in production, making low- to zero-emission cars accessible to everyone."

World debut for Land Rover Series 1 'Reborn' at 2016 Techno-Classica

LAND ROVER Classic is underscoring its commitment to providing the very best cars, services, parts and experiences to passionate Land Rover customers with the launch of the 'Reborn' initiative for the iconic Series I at Techno-Classica in Essen, Germany.

Reborn offers 25 prospective customers the unique opportunity to purchase an original and highly collectable Land Rover Series I directly from Land Rover Classic.

Land Rover Classic's expert team has drawn on decades of experience to hand-pick 25 Series I chassis from Land Rover's global network. Each model will undergo a complete restoration according to the brand's original 1948 factory specification and using Land Rover Classic Parts to preserve authenticity. This includes the choice of five period finishes including Light Green, Bronze Green, RAF Blue, Dove Grey and Poppy Red.

Customers will be able to select their preferred base vehicle with the help and guidance of Land Rover Classic's experienced restoration team, and they will be able to follow the restoration of their cherished Series I from start to finish at Land Rover's new Classic workshop located within the original Defender production centre at Solihull.

Tim Hannig, Director, Jaguar Land Rover Classic, said: "The launch of the Reborn initiative represents a fantastic opportunity for customers to own a valuable and collectable automotive icon. Reborn showcases Land Rover Classic's expertise in restoring and maintaining our loyal customers' prized Land Rovers. It also demonstrates the business' commitment to supporting customers with original and meticulously sourced parts for Land Rover models that have been out for production for longer than 10 years.

ŠKODA showers used car buyers with freebies this April

ŠKODA is offering bargain hunters incredible value on its Approved Used vehicles this April, at a series of special events across the UK.

The Approved Used Car Event – taking place at participating retailers between the 15th and 18th April – sees all eligible models come with £500 worth of fuel and the first two services absolutely free. This is on top of the offer of one year's free warranty and one year's free roadside assistance, which comes as standard on all Approved Used ŠKODAs.

The offer is part of a focus to give buyers exceptional used vehicles and outstanding value, with an unparalleled showroom experience.

Nick O'Neill, Used Car Manager at ŠKODA UK, commented: "We know that most people who own a ŠKODA fall head-over-heels in love with it, because of the blend of style, performance and practicality on offer. Through our Approved Used Car Event, we're hoping to give more people the opportunity to own one, all for a very affordable price.

"Used cars are a big focus for us this year – whilst the car market in general is synonymous with innovation, the second-hand sector often gets overlooked. Not by ŠKODA: there are many exciting developments coming up which will raise eyebrows. Watch this space."

To find out more about the Approved Used Car event, visit: www.skoda.co.uk/used-cars/used-car-event/

Spiller's late equaliser makes it honours even

SOUTH WEST PENINSULA Division One (East)

Wednesday, April 6th
Axminster Town 1 Sidmouth Town 1
AN 86th minute Gary Spiller goal ensured honours ended even at the East Devon derby at Tiger Way last week.

The former Chard Town winger got on the end of a Ben Turner pass to poke the ball past Sidmouth keeper Alex Bowring, and it was no more than Axminster deserved.

Whilst large parts of the game were nip and tuck in the midfield area, it was Bowring who was the busier of the two keepers – pulling off several superb saves to deflect the ball over and around the woodwork.

The Tigers went into the game without regular glove man Scott Wells-Burr who fractured a finger in the 2-2 draw with Galampton on Saturday so Chard Town Reserve team manager Stu Parris took over between the sticks.

Parris was almost picking the ball out his net in the 12th minute as a scorching drive from Dave Green flashed past him but thudded against the crossbar.

The Vikings went close against 10 minutes later when Cameron Vere, with 19 league goals to his name this season, latched onto a ball over the top, burst past the Ax defence, but screwed his shot wide from just inside the area.

From here it was the hosts who crafted the better opportunities. Luke Finn had a shot beaten out by Bowring who soon after parried Tony Pinder's shot and the young striker's follow-up was hooked off the line.

But it was Sidmouth who broke the deadlock in the 52nd minute when a cross from the right was nodded back across the six-yard box by Vere to the waiting Billy Rouse who lashed the ball on the half-volley past Parris who had no chance.

A minute later Pinder had a snap header tipped over by Bowring as The Tigers looked to respond.

As winger Liam Cleal had a double effort blocked and from the resulting corner Turner went close with a header that was deflected away.

A quick free kick at the other end caught the Ax defence on their heels and Vere went close with an effort on the half-turn that was deflected over the bar.

Vere had the ball in the net soon after but his effort was ruled out for an infringement.

But it was all Axminster now with Spiller and substitute Jon Hurford both going close.

They deservedly grabbed the equaliser when the in-form Spiller netted his fifth goal in three games.

The sees The Vikings extend their unbeaten run to five matches while the Tigers are now without a home win since late November.

Saturday, April 9th Exwick Villa 7 Sidmouth Town 1

SIDMOUTH'S excellent six match unbeaten run came to an end at the hands of Exwick Villa.

On the day the Vikings were forced to make six changes to the squad that have performed so impressively in recent weeks.

The home-side were two goals up within the first ten minutes of the game with Jordan Harris and Matt Byrne doing the damage.

An alleged handball by Sidmouth's Matt Clenahan on the 20th minute resulted in a penalty that was expertly saved by Alex Bowring.

This should have inspired Sidmouth but it didn't – they lacked the energy levels, personnel and quality to mount a comeback and it was no surprise when Byrne scored his second in the 30th minute.

That said Sidmouth did have two goal bound efforts cleared off the line. On the 40th minute Cameron Vere headed home his 21st league goal of the season.

After the break Sidmouth were the better side for 20 minutes and had further efforts cleared off the line, it was clear to see that lady luck was not shining on the greens today.

In the 70th minute Exwick took control and scored further goals through Harris, Lee Radford (2) and Callum Hoare. Three of which were deflected efforts!

For Sidmouth this is a minor blip and they will be a lot stronger when they face St Martins on Tuesday and Alphington away on Saturday.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE round-up by Collin Goodwin

AFTER giving their rivals hope this week, Premier leaders NEWTOWN returned to winning ways with a tough 3-1 derby win at HEAVITREE UNITED.

The Heavies, buoyed by their mid-week East Devon Senior Cup semi-final success against Topsham, were out to put the spoke in, but Newtown managed to do enough to end the mini slowdown with goals from Jack Gill and substitute Richard Austin who bagged the last two. Ryan Harding replied for Heavitree who had two goals disallowed.

HONITON TOWN are now the side chasing the leaders and they tucked away another maximum winning 3-0 at home to BOW AAC.

Correy Couch, Joe Mulhall and a Lewis Couch penalty earned the points but it was another setback for the visitors.

FENITON had to settle for a 1-1 draw against HATHERLEIGH TOWN who might have won but for home 'keeper Luke Ashford who was brilliant. Ben Ede with a free kick scored for Fenny, Greg Mitchell equalising.

TOPSHAM TOWN ran wild against bottom of the table WILLAND ROVERS winning 11-1 with Aaron Street helping himself to four goals. Liam Pike and Dylan Dare struck twice, Sam Clark, James Skinner and Jack O'Neill once.

BEER ALBION pulled off a surprise as they edged ELMORE 2-1. NEWTON ST CYRES won their derby clash with EXWICK VILLA 4-1, and SEATON TOWN pocketed three more welcome points as they sent CLYST VALLEY packing 3-0.

Division One leaders EXMOUTH AMATEURS can almost book their place in the Premier after they whitewashed HEAVITREE 13-0. Lee Hill struck a hat-trick, and there were doubles for Matt Cousins, Karl Riddell and Tom Matthews.

Rivals BICKLEIGH had to settle for a 2-2 draw at COLYTON where play was delayed for some time due to injury.

SIDMOUTH TOWN won their derby game against a ten man BUDLEIGH SALTERTON 8-0 with Rikki Pitter scoring a hat-trick. Will Jenkins and Ferenc Boden both scored twice.

UPOTTERY had a much tougher ask against lowly LYMPSTONE but edged home 3-2.

A 2-2 draw at home to HALWILL earned CULM UNITED their first point in Division Two since they beat East Budleigh in October. Since that result they have lost 12 matches and conceded a massive 81 goals.

Meanwhile leaders HENRY'S CRONIES chalked up another big win 7-0 at HEMYOCK with Liam Carey getting a hat-trick. Stuart Fraser, Danny Pym, Martin Tyrer and Mike Benyon scored each.

DAWLISH UNITED beat EAST BUDLEIGH 3-0 with Phil Nicholson scoring after Josh Goswell poached a brace in the opening ten minutes.

CULLOMPTON were also 3-0 winners at EXMOUTH TOWN with Paul Dugard 2 and Dan Horler scoring.

Leaders CHAGFORD completed their home matches in Division Three but had to come from behind twice to beat WOODBURY 3-2. Robert Crews and Andy Bennett scored for the Wooders, Ben Barkwill, Reuben Sampson and Davob Friend for the moormen.

Second place LAPFORD hit double figures for the second week running as they destroyed THORVERTON 10-0. Mark Tucker and Dan Tucker hit hat-tricks; Harr Leach netted twice. Colin Dougal and Nathan Penhall scored for EXMOUTH AMATEURS who drew 2-2 at AXMOUTH UNITED.

PINHOE who are desperate to recruit some new faces to keep their team going in Division Four won a thriller against BAMPION 5-4.

The big game in Division Five saw leaders OTTERTON defeat second place UPLWMAN ATHLETIC 5-3.

Si Tuley and Key Pitt scored twice for the rollers, Ben Galloway had a hat-trick for Uplowman who have three matches in hand but are now seven points in arrears.

With Division Six leaders WINCHESTER busy reaching the final of the Football Express Cup 4-0 against SOUTH ZEAL, only NEWTON ST CYRES closed the gap as they won a cracker against fourth place MILLWEY RISE 5-4. Wincesters goals came from Declan Vowden 2, Josh Jerrett and Matt Baker and it was their fifth clean sheet in a row.

The top of the table clash in Division Seven ended all square at 4-4 between leaders CENTRAL and TIVVY PARK RANGERS. Darren Heale, Shane Heale, Ben Hartry and Ryan Harte were the Tivvy marksmen.

CRANBROOK won the big game in Division Eight 3-1 against SIDMOUTH 3-1 Karl Sugg scoring twice. BICKLEIGH won 5-0 at BAMPION with Shane Mears getting a hat-trick.

KENTIBEAIRE leapt into the top three in Division Nine with a comfortable 5-0 victory at AMORY GREEN ROVERS.

MILLWEY RISE Newton St Cyres 2nds 5 Millwey Rise 1sts 4

THIS game summed up the ecstasy and agony of a Millwey stalwart.

In the first 30 minutes Millwey played some of the best football they've played all season. Their movement and passing was outstanding and their opponents were continually on the back foot.

It came as no surprise when in the 20th minute a flowing move from defence into attack saw Simon Smith and Tyler Warren link-up to provide Levi Hoole with the opportunity to open the scoring.

Smith was again the provider for Hoole's second goal. Then Millwey's prolific scorer grabbed his third goal from a typical powerful shot on the run for a hatrick in the space of five minutes.

Millwey were in a second Heaven but were swiftly brought down to Earth when the home side took advantage of lethargic defending to open their account.

Within minutes Smith and Hoole again combined to create what appeared to be another goal but it was cleared off the line by a defender with the goalkeeper well beaten.

Newton St Cyres then broke away once more and just before the half time whistle scored their second to go into the break 3-2 down.

The opening minutes of the second half saw Millwey's ecstasy change to agony as the home side drew level when they once more capitulated to a defensible cross.

To Millwey's credit they continued in their attempt to play their way out of defence into attack. They could have drew level when Simon Smith's vision nearly secured an equaliser.

Seeing the home 'keeper off his line he attempted a lob which, to the keeper's credit, he managed to tip just over the bar.

Millwey brought on Sam Burke for Tyler Warren but before he had any opportunity to make his presence felt Newton St Cyres went into the lead 4-3.

Nathan Wormsley then scorched the home side's bar with a rasping shot before he too was substituted and Sam Turner was introduced into the attack.

In the 55th minute Millwey's defence was again undone as the home side increased their lead to 5-3 but two minutes later Levi Hoole was again on target to provide a lifeline.

Unfortunately in the remaining time, although pressing hard, the visitors could not get the vital goal to bring them level.

For Millwey, Hoole and Smith were outstanding, in fact despite the result the whole team played well.

Although Mike Knight's presence was missed, what really would pull the team together is a domineering presence in the middle of the defence. We are currently awaiting a reply to our approach for John Terry.

Next week Millwey Rise 1sts are again on the road, this time to Winkleigh (3pm kick-off).

Millwey Rise 2nds 1 Witheridge 3rds 1

AT HALF-time Millwey were trailing 1-0 although their football should have produced more goals as they had the greater share of the half's opportunities.

In the second period Olly Birkhoff scored for the home side and the match ended 1-1.

Millwey had by far the lion's share of the game and a win should have been within their grasp but the chances went begging.

Olly Birkhoff was Millwey's man of the match together with a solid back four who denied the visitors any further threats on goal.

Next week Millwey 2nds are away at Glebe Park, Upottery (3pm kick-off).

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

round-up by Howard Larcombe
DEFEAT on Combe A's Slades Cross slope has taken some of the steam out of Hawkchurch United's charge for promotion from Division One.

Owen Ladd put the hosts ahead from a corner. Hawkchurch playmaker Dan Richards was then struck in the face by his marker who was surprisingly only showed a yellow card.

The pair clashed again in the second half and both were dismissed by referee Mark Macey after receiving second yellow cards.

Mark Biss made it 2-0 before Hawks' Rowan Short had an effort ruled out for offside.

Gavin Herrod made it 2-1 with his 32nd goal of the season late-on, but the visitors' 11-game unbeaten league run was over.

Chard Colts win Somerset League

WITH GLYN HUGHES

Chard Colts 24pts Minehead Colts 3pts

TEAM coach Duncan Nicholls was full of praise for his team and commented after the game that they had played and trained hard throughout the season and winning the title was nothing less than their efforts deserved.

To do so with still two league games to go was an outstanding achievement. A great deal of thanks are also extended to his valuable back up team of coaches and staff as well as all those companies and individuals who had sponsored the team throughout the season, many of whom were at the game on Saturday which was played on the main ground.

Chard actually started the game quite nervously and they went behind to an early penalty goal but they got back in to the game when their flying winger Emil Szydelko left everyone in his wake as he went over for the first try which was unconverted. Szydelko went over early in the second half for another try with George Reed adding the extras and although Minehead were giving it their all Chard now really upped their game and would end up worthy winners.

The Chard forwards were dominating things and when the pack won the ball against the head the ball found its way to Murray Squire who crossed for the third try.

Squire along with Jack Oaten was also always heavily involved in the defensive side of things when the need arose.

Chard's final try came from a timely interception from Ross Colenso and with Barnaby Down converting Chard sealed a good win. The whole squad of 22 players all did their bit but special mention must go to prop Liam Mustchin and centre Ryan Wingate.

Chard Colts are due to play Wellington away next

Saturday and they will finish their season with a final game at home against Taunton under the newly refurbished floodlights the following Friday evening.

South West One

Clevedon 40pts Chard 19pts

CHARD remain very close to the relegation places after this heavy defeat at Clevedon but, fortunately, other results went in their favour at the weekend – and Chard still find themselves in a position whereby if they can beat Coney Hill at home next weekend, it should be enough to avoid the drop as they are currently five points clear of Wells and six points clear of Avonmouth with only two matches left.

Chard have for a number of reasons had plenty of problems putting out a settled side for some time and it really showed on Saturday when despite once again showing a lot of determination and effort they came across a Clevedon side who were quick, decisive and well organised.

Chard started the game very well and from an early penalty which was kicked to the corner they drove over from a lineout with Simon Jenkins getting the touchdown. Full back John Humphrey added the conversion points.

It did not take Clevedon long to get back into their stride game however and their backs looked really sharp and they were certainly benefiting from having some of their stronger players returning from injury.

Chard could not cope with the superb running of the home threequarters and they conceded four converted tries before the interval with centre Maslen, Flankers Warren and Foley and the outstanding Aaron Riceall crossing the Chard line. Fly half Keiran Hill was faultless with the conversions.

The score could well have been much worse but some terrific covering particularly from Chad Northcott kept the score down.

Selection issues meant that Chard had several players playing out of position but as the game went on they adjusted as well as they could and this was reflected in a much better second half performance.

Chard pulled a try back when the ever improving Matt Tinley judged an interception perfectly and raced through for a score which was again converted by Humphrey which made the score 28-14.

Try as they did Chard were unable to make further inroads to the deficit and two more late tries late in the game from Clevedon settled the issue.

Chard had been hopeful of getting something from this game but as it was on the day they were well beaten. Hopefully Chard supporters will turn out in force next weekend for the game against Coney Hill and get right behind skipper Ryan Helliard and his team. The game kicks off at 3pm. There is a former players lunch prior to the game. Anyone wishing to attend should inform Jerry Duffield asap if they have not already done so – phone 01460 261810 or email jeremy.duffield@btinternet.com

Somerset One

CHARD seconds were awarded the points against Imperial on Saturday when the Bristol side were unable to get a good enough side to travel.

Next Saturday Chard 2nds are due to play Clevedon 2nds away and the 3rds have a home game against Yeovil 2nds

IZZA147 stumble in quest for second place

ANOTHER poor performance from Chard IZZA147 means their push for the league runners-up spot is now very unlikely to be accomplished.

Two of the teams fielded four players this week, but this did not yield any great advantage. With one round of fixtures to complete the season the champions seem certain to be Honiton Wonderers.

tee off golf news

HONITON with John Pawley

AN INTENSIVE 'work week' on the greens and aprons, hollow tining and top dressing ahead of the forthcoming summer season, has meant all these areas have been out of action. They needed to be ready for the first club competition of the year – The Founders Trophy. The new tee booking system by BRS has also started recently with first impressions seeming to be very favourable. Bookings can now be made online, on the phone or in person at the pro shop both by club members and non-members.

Seniors Captain Alan Pollock has had a very busy week. Monday – Alan invited the Seniors to play the course at Dainton Park. It was wet to start and finish, but the field of 30 golfers had a generally dry middle period.

Ten groups of three played a better ball Stableford competition with individual and team scores.

The team winners were the grouping of Tony Williams Bill Eaton and Mike Delaney on 82 pts ahead of the power grouping of Seniors Captain, Vice Captain and Club Chairman on 80 pts. Best individual was Bill Eaton with 39 pts with Peter Clarke second on 36 pts.

In the same week that 80-year-old Gary Player hit his 31st hole-in-one at the Masters, Honiton's own Dave Morgan had his first at the 4th hole at Dainton. Congratulated by all, he then treated all assembled to a celebratory drink.

The Longest Drive comp was won by Charlie Doherty and the nearest pin by Tony Williams. Rounded off by a splendid carvery meal and despite the weather, all agreed the day had been a great success.

Tuesday found him at Lyme Regis with nine other teams for the Jurassic Challenge. This is an annual competition on a team basis of four pairs of players, which Honiton won last year.

Whilst Long Sutton won this year with 154pts, the Honiton team scored 152pts but came fourth on count-back from Weymouth and Cricket St Thomas.

Thursday saw him, with the Seniors team playing at Sidmouth. The undulations and quirkiness of the Sidmouth course ensured they won the match 4 ½ to 1½ but this was a slight improvement on last year's result.

Over 50 Seniors played the annual Captain's versus Vice-Captain's team competition on Friday. The format was 4BBB and playing conditions were especially challenging because of the very temporary greens – with the 2nd hole completely out of use.

Alan, with partner Rob Sexton led off versus Vice Mike Sennitt and Dave Maggs, with Mike recording a victory in their personal duel. After a nail-biting finish the match ended, most unusually, in a draw with 5 wins and 4 halved matches apiece, so all assembled won a prize. There were three 2s: Steve Butcher on the shortened 3rd, Ian Orford on the 4th and there was a special cheer for the two of Bill Spice (who is in his 90s!) at the 10th.

Last Tuesday's mixed competition at Honiton was an American Foursomes, played in glorious weather with plenty of sunshine.

With the short 2nd hole out of action and nine temporary greens it made for some challenging approach shots and putting.

Bearing all this in mind, there were some good scores with Linda McLaughlin and Robert Hendrick coming out on top with 37pts, ahead of Lady Captain Jane Watts and Max Pipe on count-back. In third place with 36pts were Stephani Barnes and Phil Wall.

On Wednesday the Ladies held their annual Spring Fayre preceded by a Greensomes Stableford played over 14 holes, with a shot gun start.

The Greensomes format can always test a partnership as shots are played alternatively so you have to trust your partner. Results were as usual, very close.

The winners were new lady Sue Kelson and Lesley Oxenham with 32 pts on count-back, with Mona Carter and Liz Wood also on 32 pts. Third were Sue Ritchie and Linda Blundell on 31 pts and Cathy Uttley and Gill Johnson with 30 pts.

● The annual Founders Day trophy competition was held on Saturday at the golf club with 14 teams of four – generally made up of one player from the Seniors, Ladies, Mens and Youth sections playing together with two to score – but off ¾ of the handicap.

Whilst the novelty of playing off grass and on to proper greens was lost on a few, some creditable scores were made in the sometimes cold conditions.

The winners, on a day of frequent squally showers, were Bill Eaton, Neil Pulman, Spencer Macklin and Carol Cole with a score of 80 pts.

Second was the strong teaming of Andy Sharland, Ron Graham, Paul Borkowski and Jackie Seager with 76 pts. Third, on count-back were Steve Key, James Drew, Ian Guy and Anne Davies with 75 pts.

With the second hole fully back in play three members enjoyed marking a two on their cards – the balls going to Peter Clarke, Eric Short and Charlie Doherty.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

AXE CLIFF Golf Club held their mixed open competition, featuring a four-man team format with best man and best lady scores to count.

There was a very good turnout of home club member teams, but there was also an excellent response of visiting teams who got ten of the 12 twos recorded.

There were prizes for the best men's drive and the best ladies' drive, nearest the pin and nearest the pin in two.

The main team winners were Steve Reed and Jason Farrant of Axe Cliff and Jan Hill and Brenda Sumerfield (of East Devon) with a score of 84 points. Second place went to a team from Dainton Park with a score of 81 points.

The men's section played their Division One April Medal, with first place going to Paul Clode with a net 69; Chris Glover (net 71) was second.

Division Two results: 1st, Ian Burraston (net 68), 2nd, Jin Hong (net 72). There was only one two and that recorded by Craig Trivett.

The results of the ladies' section Easter Egg Competition, played on Easter Monday, were as follows: 'Overall Winners' were Stuart Dickson, Jin Hong and Ronnie Reed, who beat Caroline Bond, Steve Bond and Malcolm Glass.

The best mixed runners-up were the captain's team of Simon Sweetland, Bob Graham and Margaret Kenchington.

The best men's team was Chris Walker, Bill Kitchen and Mark Ward, the best seniors' team was Nigel Garwood, Adrian Bishop and Richard Oarsman. Not surprisingly, all the prizes were Easter Eggs.

The ladies' section Centenary Cup was played in medal format and, despite some mixed weather including rain and hail showers, there was some keen competition for first place.

Stella Thompson won with a net score of 71 and Jill Wellington was close behind with a net 73 resulting in a handicap cut for both ladies from 26 to 25; Barbara Cummings was third with a net 79.

The second round of the Daily Mail Foursomes' Competition was played at Axe Cliff Golf Club last Friday against Sidmouth Golf Club.

Jill Wellington and Margaret Kenchington represented ACGC and the player's handicaps were identical, but Jill and Margaret triumphed with a very creditable win of 3 & 2. They now progress to the draw for the third round.

The seniors' section played a charity stableford match resulting in a good close finish with Bob Graham (H 24) coming home first with 37 points, Bill Polley (H35) in second with 35 points, Geoff Wake (H13) in third with 34 points and Gilbert Cox and Peter Hornsby also with 34 points on countback. One two was recorded, that by Edward Backhouse.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

A FULL week of golf for the senior section commenced on Monday with the monthly qualifying medal.

A field of 53 golfers split into two divisions entered the competition in adverse weather conditions.

A tight finish ensued in Division One with Martin Leigh finishing in top spot, one point ahead of his nearest rival.

There was a runaway victory in Division Two with Mike King taking the honours with a round of five under par, amassing 41 points, enough to beat his nearest rival by three points.

Result: Division 1 – 1st, Martin Leigh (38pts), 2nd, Mike Banfield (37pts), 3rd, Rod Young (36pts). Division 2 – 1st, Mike King (41pts), 2nd, Jerry Stephens (38pts), 3rd, Nick George (38pts).

Eight members of the senior section entered the Jurassic Challenge at the Lyme Regis Club on Tuesday.

Teams from Somerset, Devon and Dorset were involved. The cricket team did themselves proud in achieving a score of 152 points, which was only two short of the winning team from Long Sutton who won the trophy

Team scores: Roger Stone & Nick Hill (38pts), Bob Barrow & John Pearce (39pts), Bert Robinson & Alan Davis (38pts), Stuart Pope & Alan Chance (37pts).

A Canadian Greensome event was held on Wednesday in the cold and rain. Twenty-six members braved the conditions and the 13 teams took to the course.

Frank Martin and Vic Gane led the way for the entire game and returned a score of six under par to claim victory. Roger Stone and Bert Robinson managed a par round of 70 to secure second place.

Result: 1st, Frank Martin & Vic Gane (64pts), 2nd, Roger Stone & Bert Robinson (70pts), 3rd, Malcolm Roy & Trevor Dobson (72pts).

The seniors' match team travelled to Wheathill on Thursday in cold and windy conditions. The two sides were evenly matched, which was evident by the scores.

With the first four games resulting in two wins for either side, an exciting finish was promised.

A close defeat in game five meant that an outright win was unobtainable. However a good win at game six left the match score at three games each. An honourable draw.

Results: Nick Hill & Ian Fielder lost to Roberts & Jones by 6 & 4; Roger Stone & Alan Davis beat Curzon & Palmer by 2 & 1; Norman Markby & Barrie Singleton beat Eynon & Underdown by 6 & 4; Barrie Heath & Mick Hinson lost to Forscitt & Sore by 5 & 3; John Chance & John Dick lost to Bowring & Frith by 3 & 1; Chris Gingell & Lindsey Gage beat Gregory & Neville by 4 & 3.

On Friday, 56 Senior members entered the club 'Masters' charity competition which took the form of an individual stableford. Once again, conditions were far from satisfactory.

This did not deter the top 10 positions, all of whom managed to return scores below par. Two outstanding rounds by Eddie Paolini and Danny Dowell saw them finish in first and second place respectively, with Richard Hall taking third spot.

Result: 1st, Eddie Paolini (41pts), 2nd, Danny Dowell (40 pts), 3rd, Richard Hall (38pts).

Honiton ladies win Lacemakers Trophy... at last!

HONITON with Julie Grant

AFTER contesting Devon's top club competition – the Lacemakers Trophy – for three years, Honiton ladies finally won the event they set up in 2014.

Plymouth won the inaugural match and were runners-up in 2015. In 2016, once again they were finalists but Honiton won four of the five disciplines to achieve victory.

Berry Maynard started Honiton off well by winning the two wood singles 15–10. Then the pair of Yvonne Rayner and Shirley Hiscocks beat a very strong Plymouth pair, 20–12.

The fours of Sally Spreadbury, Lynda Dommett, Joan Heard and Sue Evans kept their concentration well as Plymouth had to bring on a substitute in the form of county president Anna Harris and still won 21–17.

The triple of Ann Brown, Carol Smith and Julie Grant fought their way to a winning position on the last end only to be denied by the Plymouth skip's last wood – 16–13 to Plymouth.

Carole Binmore, after a slow start, came back well in her four wood singles and Honiton clinched victory.

There were mixed fortunes in the mixed friendlies last week. Honiton lost to Budleigh 44–68; best rink drawing 19 all were Fenella Griggs, Harry Riley, Brian Braund and Jimmy Smith.

Then Honiton beat Probud 97–44; top rink scoring 30–6 were Yvonne Williams, Bob Mackintosh, Brenda Harris, and Barry Randall.

Honiton have played 45 mixed matches, winning 32, losing 10 and drawing three this indoor season.

● HONITON bowls club held a very successful end of season tournament sponsored by Snows Toyota. Fourteen teams from several different clubs participated, enjoying good bowling, a delicious lunch and tea.

The winners were a team from ISCA Viv Simpson, Roger Franklin, Mary Wakely and Owen Clark.

SEATON with Linda Stone

WITH just two league games to be played this week, the winter season of short mat bowls draws to a close.

The club finals were played on Thursday, April 7th, where the pairs match was a hard fought game between Linda and Norman Stone and Lilian and Terry Hurley-Smith. The Stones ending up champions after a really enjoyable game. The singles final was between Lilian Hurley-Smith and Ann Joyner. Lilian winning and taking the championship.

Next Saturday the clubhouse will be reconfigured ready for the outdoor season and we will kick off with the opening drive on Sunday, April 17th at 2pm. Spectators and new members are always welcome.

EAST DEVON SHORT MAT with Caroline Pavey

SIDBURY take the titles in the evening divisions, also claiming home points are Awliscombe 'A' and West Hill in Division One, along with Ottery St Mary and Uffculme in Division Two.

In Afternoon Division One there was a home win for Sidford and Colyton, but Beer can't be beat at the top; in Afternoon Division Two there were home wins for Seaton Blue and Musbury.

Afternoon Division Three saw home wins for Colyton 'B', Chard and Seaton Green.

star's orders running round up

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

ON APRIL 3rd Stephen Boyes took part in Taunton Marathon.

It was not his best ever run but he was reasonably happy with the result of 98th in 3hrs 54mins although his two AVR rivals, Steve Reynolds and Geoff Woodward, both got the better of him!

The race was won by Toby Chapman in 2:46 and there were 182 finishers. Andy Ashford tackled the half marathon which is one loop of the marathon and finished in 1:55 coming 472nd out of 1023 finishers. James Laing won this race in 1:12.

On the same day Jennie Sleeman was the sole Honiton runner at Reading Half Marathon.

She was 5,488th out of 10,980 finishers in 2:02. Jennie found it uncomfortable but the atmosphere as runners entered the Madejski Football Stadium was amazing and more than made up for it.

An early start was required for six Honiton runners last Sunday as they travelled to the lovely village of Cheddar in Somerset. Having read the pre race notes runners were told that there was a walk to the start – this walk turned out to be a climb of 420 foot over a third of a mile which would be good training for anyone thinking of mountain climbing.

The 5k & 10k races started at the same time and point. The first part was another climb but once at the top runners were treated to a fantastic view of Cheddar Reservoir.

The race split at about 2k sending the 10k route on an out and back run, meaning that runners got to see the first place runners on their way back.

Jasmine and Nicola Greenland both did the 5k run with Jasmine leading the way for the ladies being 4th back and 1st female in a time of 24 min 23sec. Nicola finished in a time of 29:06 coming in 16th place out of 60.

Howard Bidmead was first back for Honiton on the 10k route finishing in 56th place in 59:03. Tony Peek was next back in 95th in 1:06:58. Claire Rouse was next back 119th in 1:09:35 followed closely by Bernice Bastin coming four places later in a time of 1:10:37. There were 169 runners and the winner was Tom Jordan in 44:25. This is the first run in a set of four at the Gorge. Honiton runners will return!

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

IT WAS a cold and blustery start for the Axe to Axe coastal path race that unsurprisingly was very hilly and tiring to run.

Jan Dolezel from Haldon Trail runners was the winner in 2:51:33, but not far behind in 3rd spot was Patrick Devine-Wright 3rd in 2:52:41.

Claire Hansford had a great run to be 3rd lady 27th overall in 3:27:46. Other AVR times were: Terry Emmett 8th, 3:04:41; Eleanor Wood 38th, 3:36:32; Josh Hobson 58th, 3:50:29; Tim Lenton 70th, 3:53:38; Matt Hower 77th, 3:56:59; Jonathan Day & Steve Haines 108th, 4:08:03; Patrick Kinsella 110th, 4:08:07; Margaret Pearce and Alan Morbey 117th, 4:14:16; Steven Lewis 143rd, 4:30:46; John & Amy Greenhalge 190th, 5:19:01 and Robert Kerr 212th, 6:12:23.

Stop The Bus win key match-up

STOP The Bus won what might be a potentially pivotal game with their nearest challengers Tugas Team and, in doing so, moved themselves three points clear at the top of the table.

They ran out with a 3-1 victory in the match, as Matt Berry starred, while Slim Jims took the eye with a thrilling 7-1 hammering of The Dirty Half Dozen, in a game where they were 'going for Gauld' with Kyle Gauld amongst the goals.

Elsewhere Vallreal saw their title hopes take a knock and lost 2-1 to 50 Shades, while the basement battle went the way of Whitemagic who moved off the bottom with a 1-0 win.

Division One is perhaps the closest in the UK, with six points separating six teams. Avid Bob FC cruised home 3-1 against Crystal FC and deposed Millwey Maddos as result, after last week's leaders lost 2-1 to Inter.

The other games both ended 3-0. Offenders dragged Uplyme and Sinker back into mid-table with their win, and All The Gear No Idea were grateful to Ben Goodier in their victory against Ramos Army.

Honours even in local derby clash

◆ ALL SQUARE: Wednesday evening's South-West Peninsula League Division One (E) local derby between Axminster Town and Sidmouth Town finished 1-1, a hard fought game under the Tiger Way floodlights. (Above left) Gary Spiller (amber shirt, centre) slots home the 86th minute equaliser for Axminster. Meanwhile (above right) Sidmouth Town centre-back Anthony Griffiths catches Ax striker Luke Finn but the resulting free-kick came to nothing. See match report inside on page 53
